SECV2223 WEB PROGRAMMING

SESSION 2024/2025 SEMESTER 2

SECTION 10

USER MANUAL

ONLINE FOOD ORDERING SYSTEM

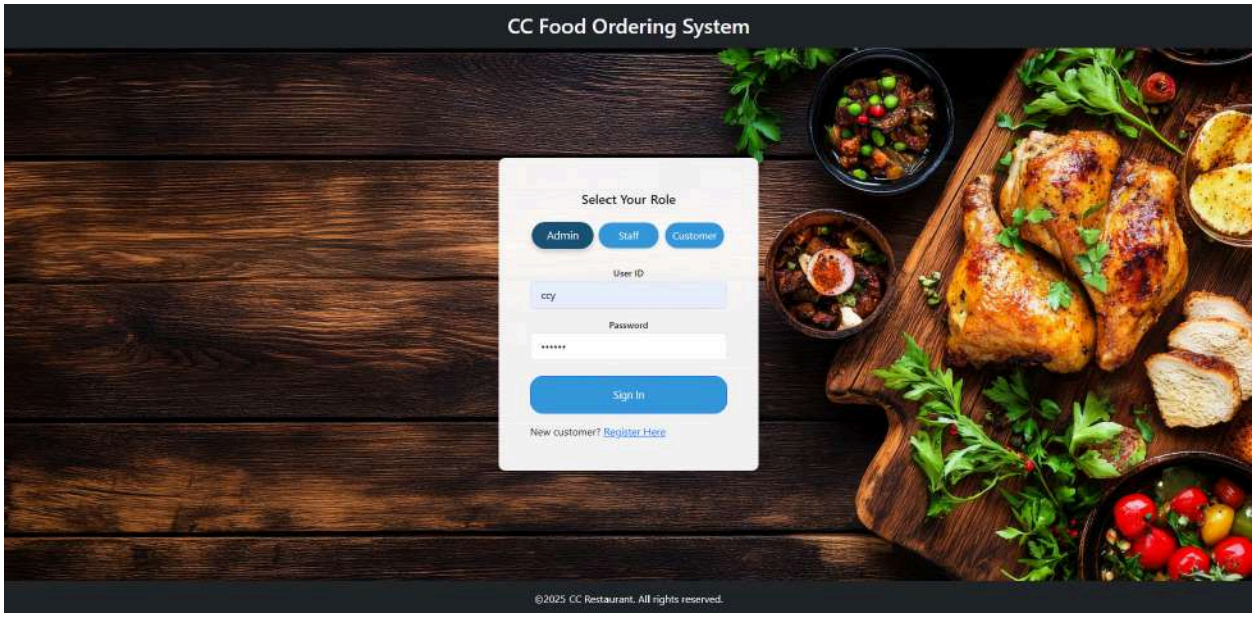
LECTURER'S NAME: DR. AIDA BINTI ALI

GROUP NAME: INNOVATORS

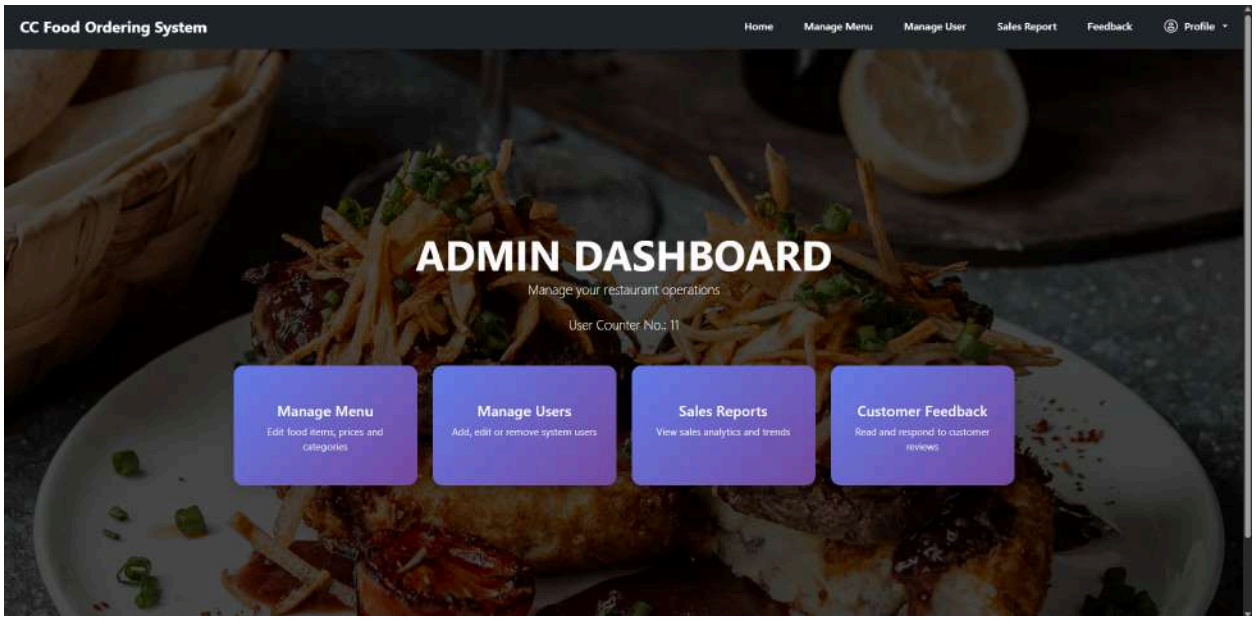
NO.	GROUP MEMBERS	MATRIC NO
1	CHUAH CHUN YI	A23CS0070
2	NAZMI HAIKAL BIN KHAIRUL	A23CS0145
3	CHONG JUN HONG	A23CS0066
4	TAI YI TIAN	A23CS0272
5	LOH HUI YI	A23CS0106

ADMIN

1. Admin logs in to the system using the given username and password.

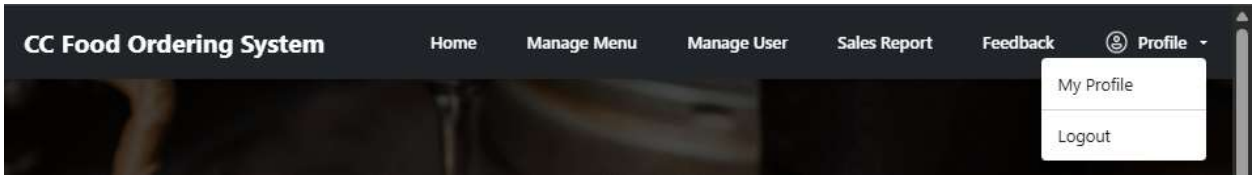


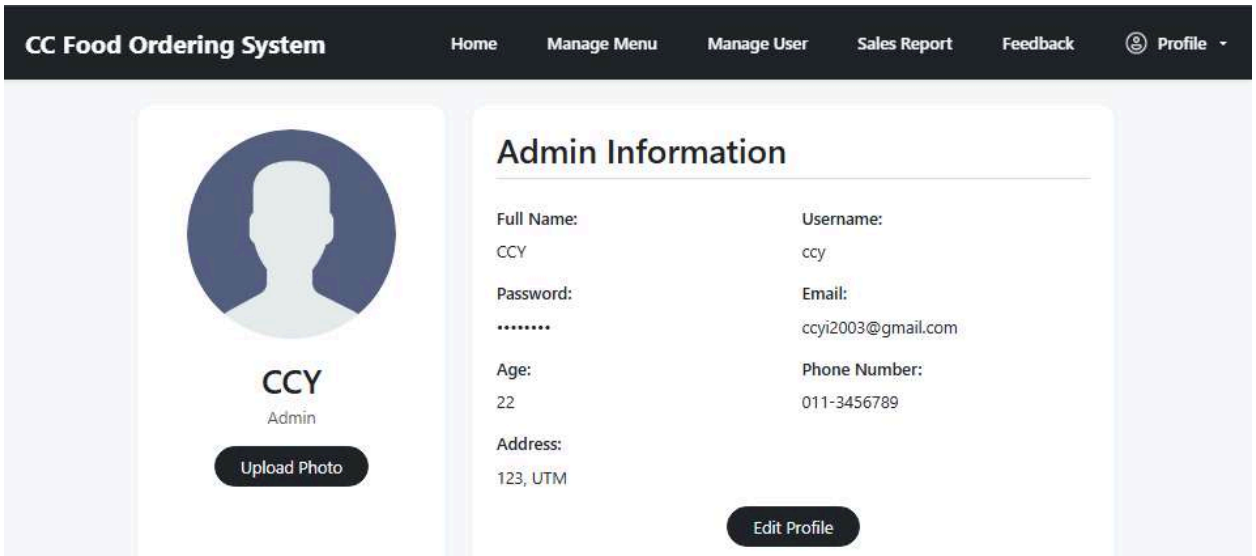
2. If the username and password entered both are matched with the data in the database, the admin will be logged in to the admin's homepage.

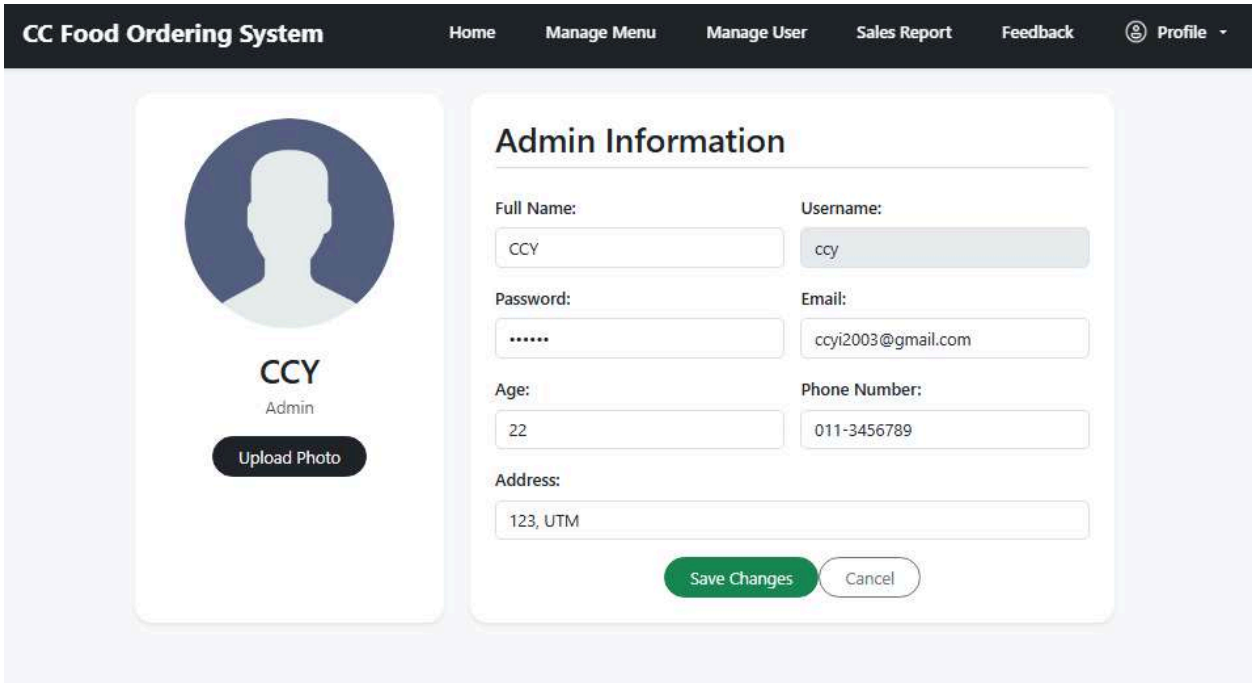


3. Clicking the user icon on the top right will display “Profile” and “Log Out” as a drop down menu.

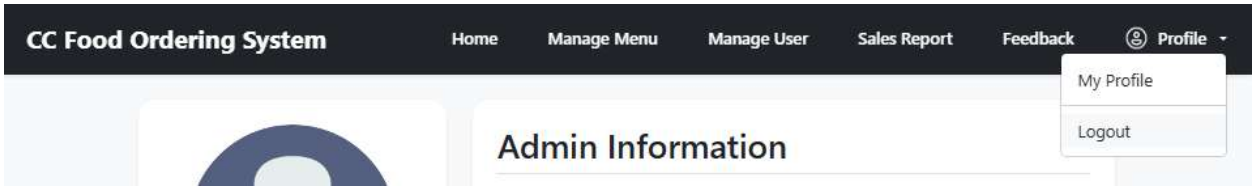
a. Choosing “Profile”, the system displays the current admin profile and the admin can edit their profile.



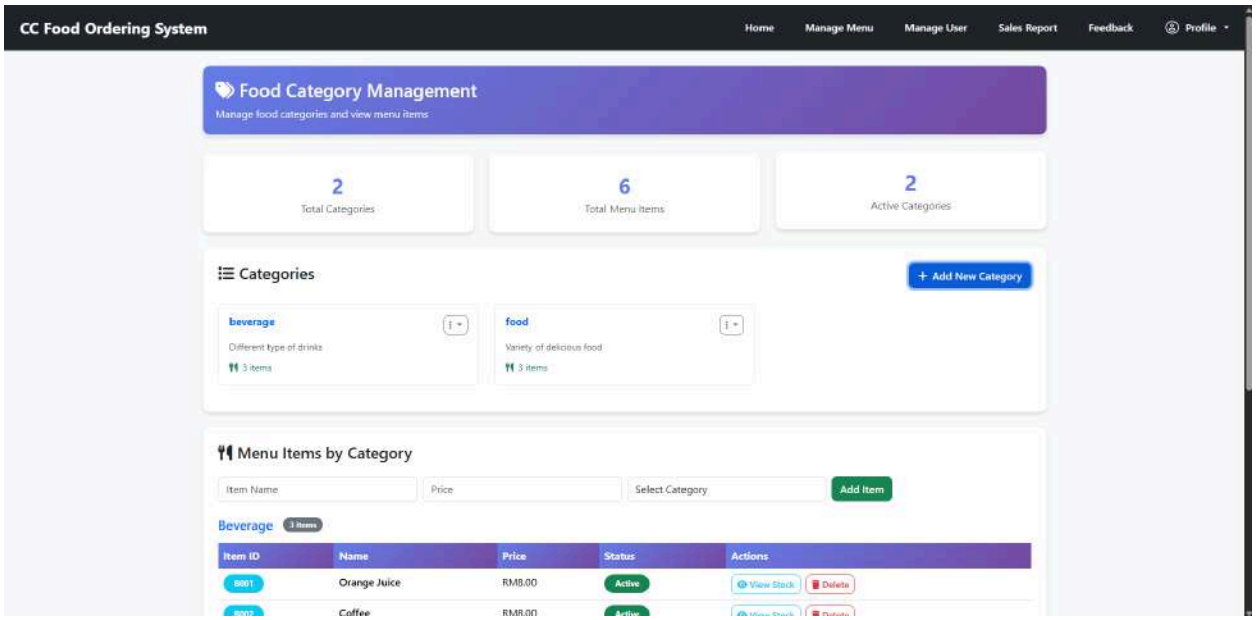




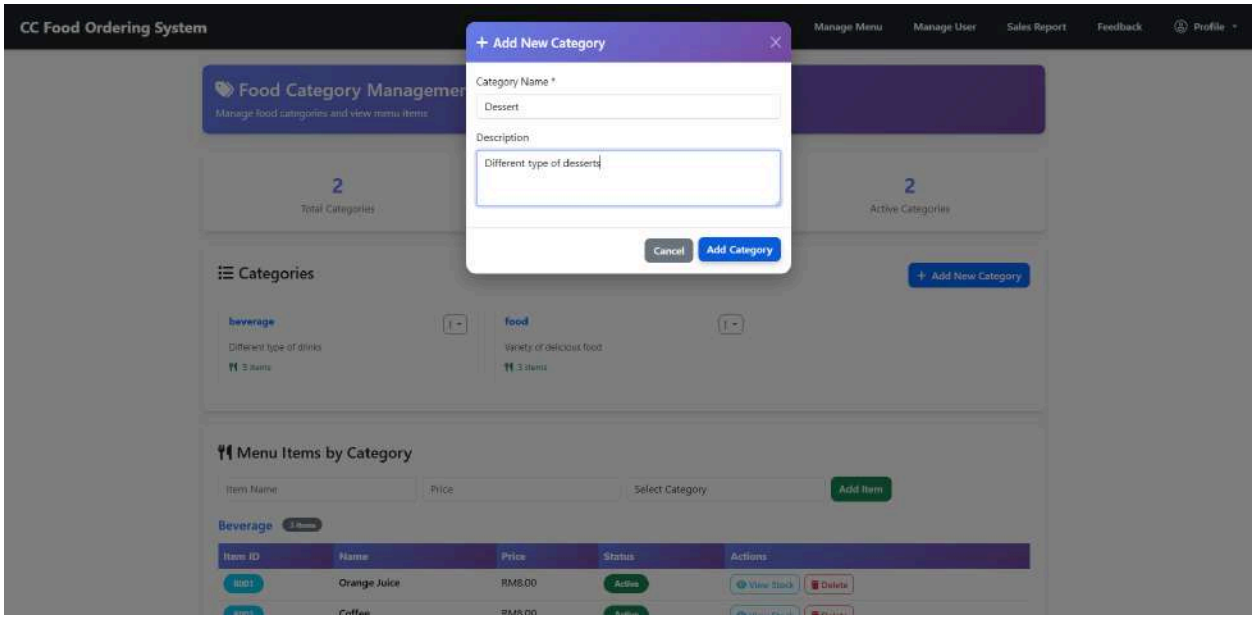
b. If the admin chooses “Log Out”, they will be logged out and brought back to the login page



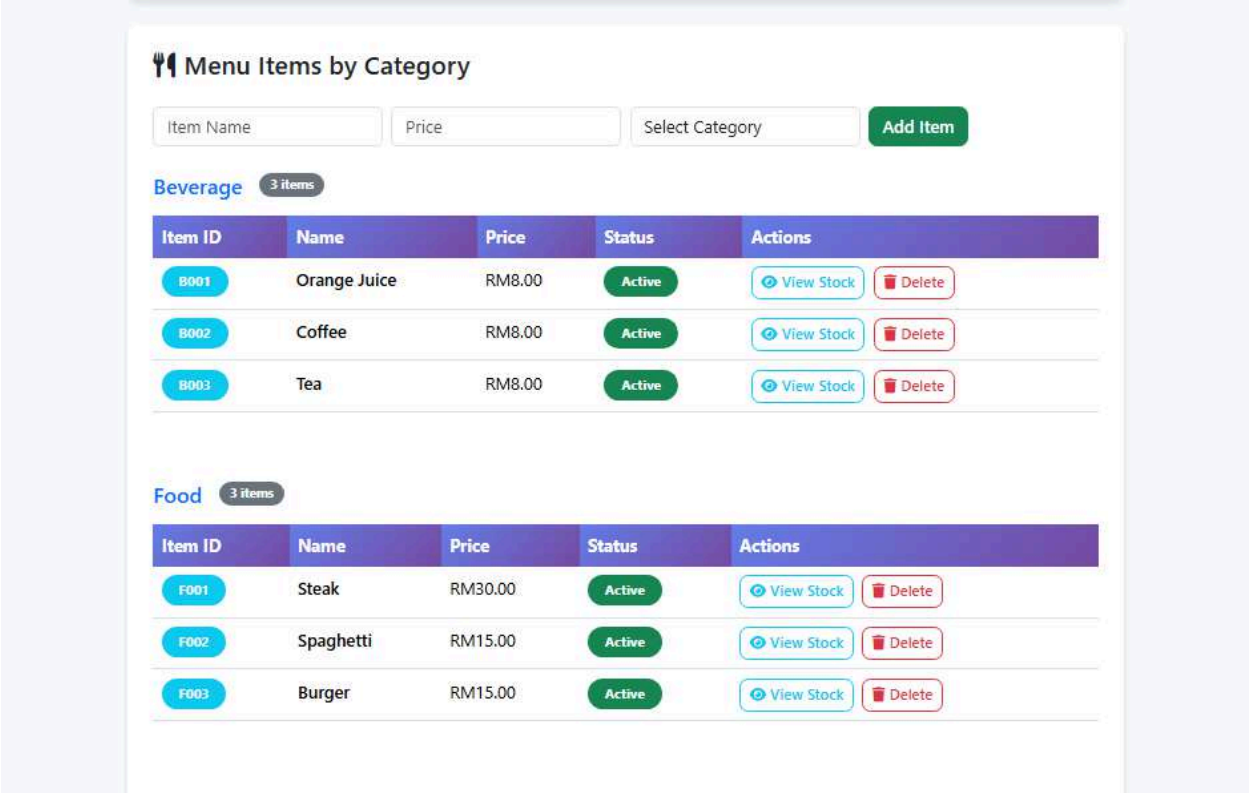
4. Clicking “Manage Menu” on the navigation bar or “Manage Menu” at the bottom, the system will display all food items in the database.

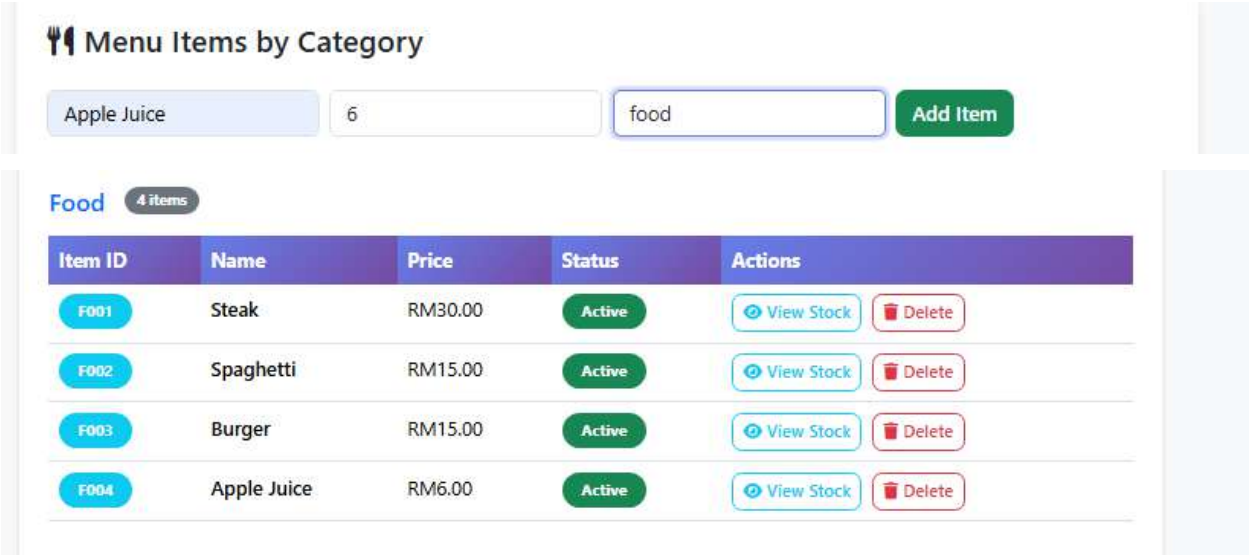


a. The admin can add a new category by clicking the “Add New Category” button on the manage menu section.

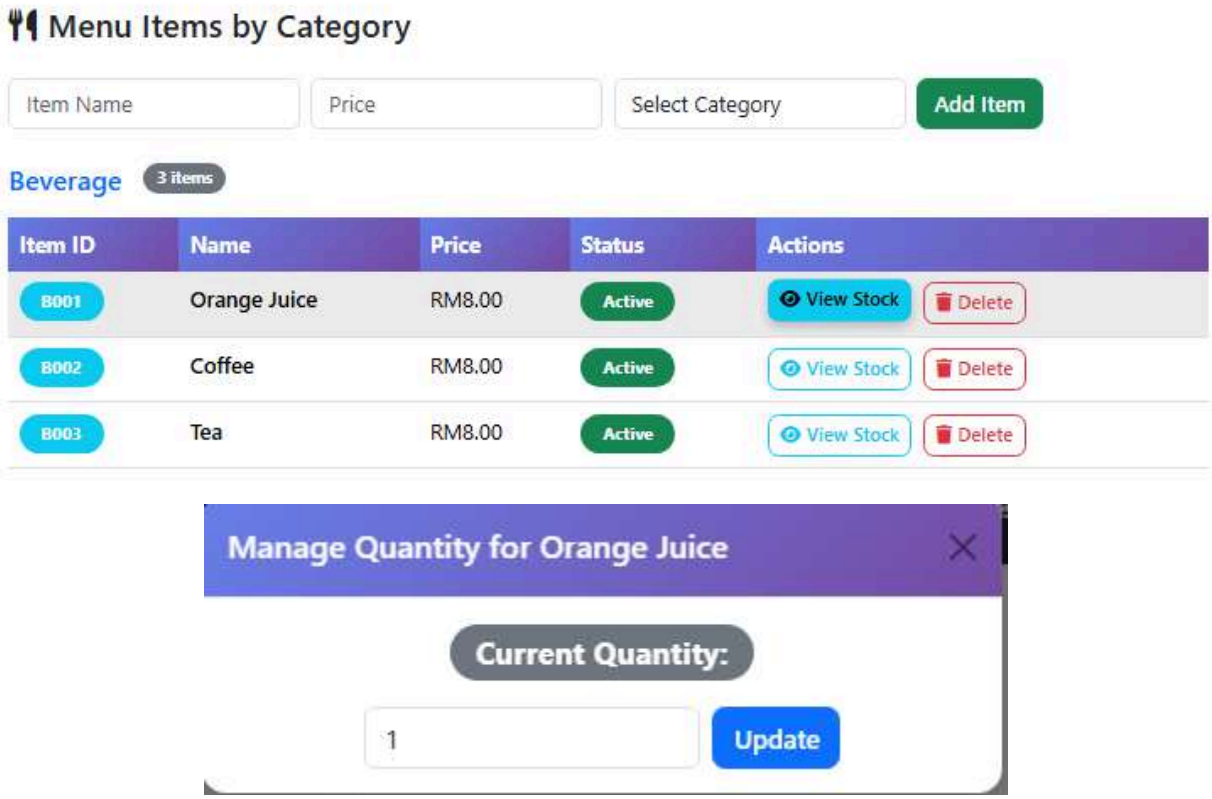


b. The admin can add new items by clicking the “Add Item” button on the manage menu section.

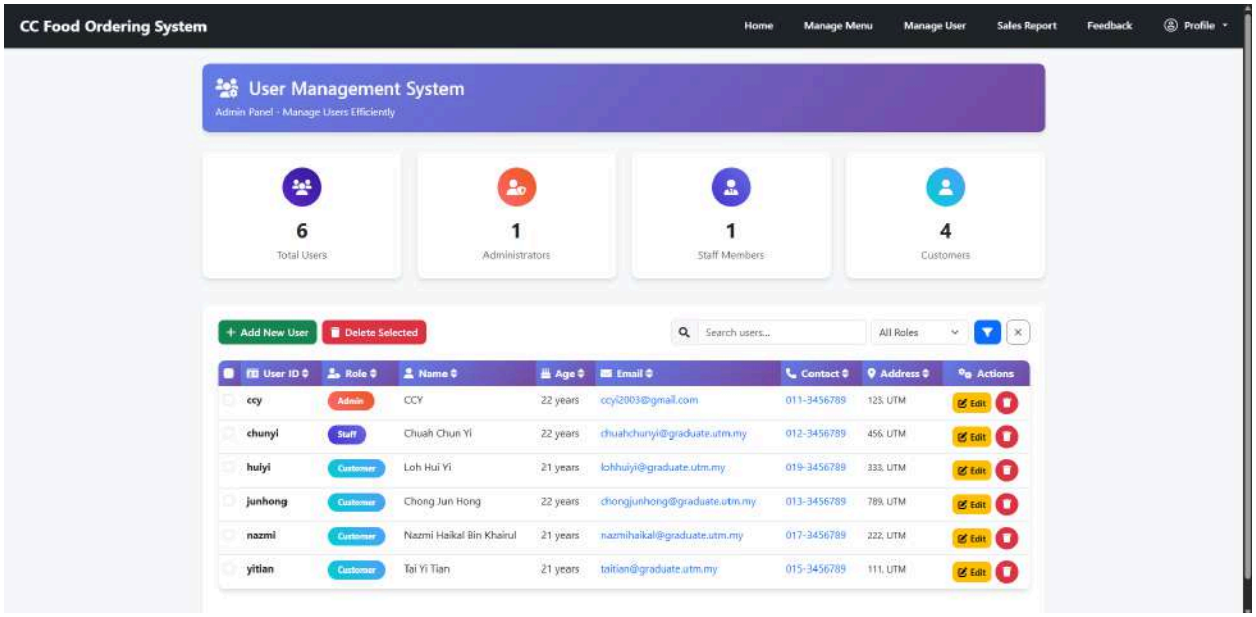




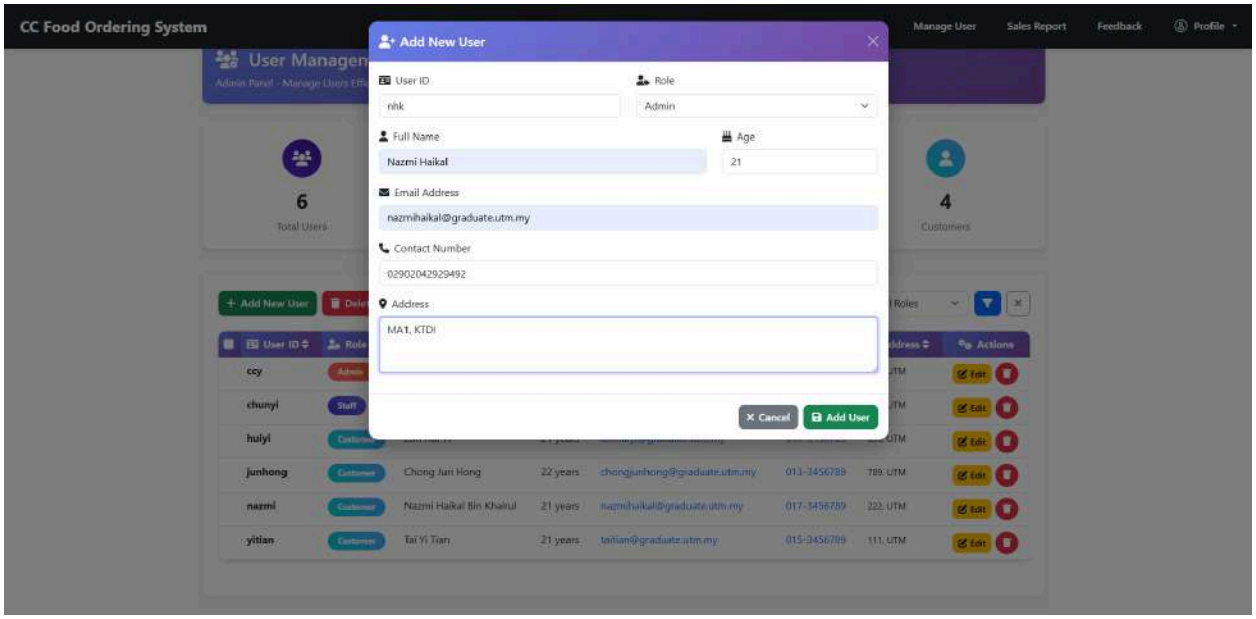
c. The admin can view and update the stock of the item by clicking on the "View Stock" button on the manage menu section.



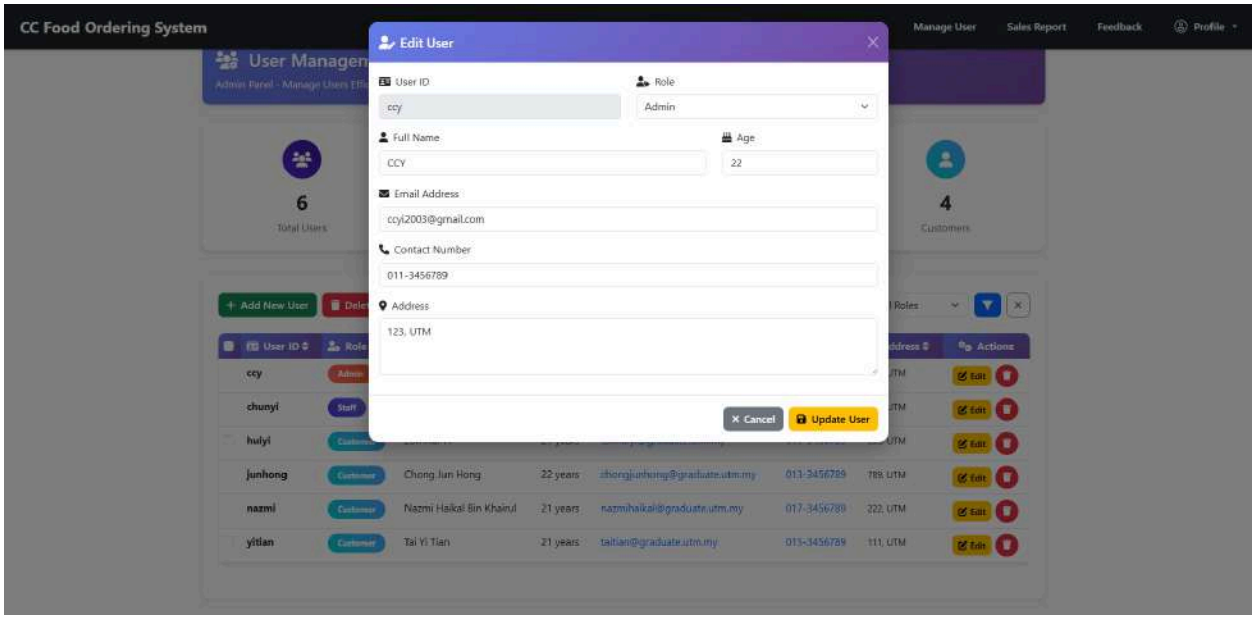
5. Clicking “Manage User” on the navigation bar or “Manage User” at the bottom, the system will display all users in the database.



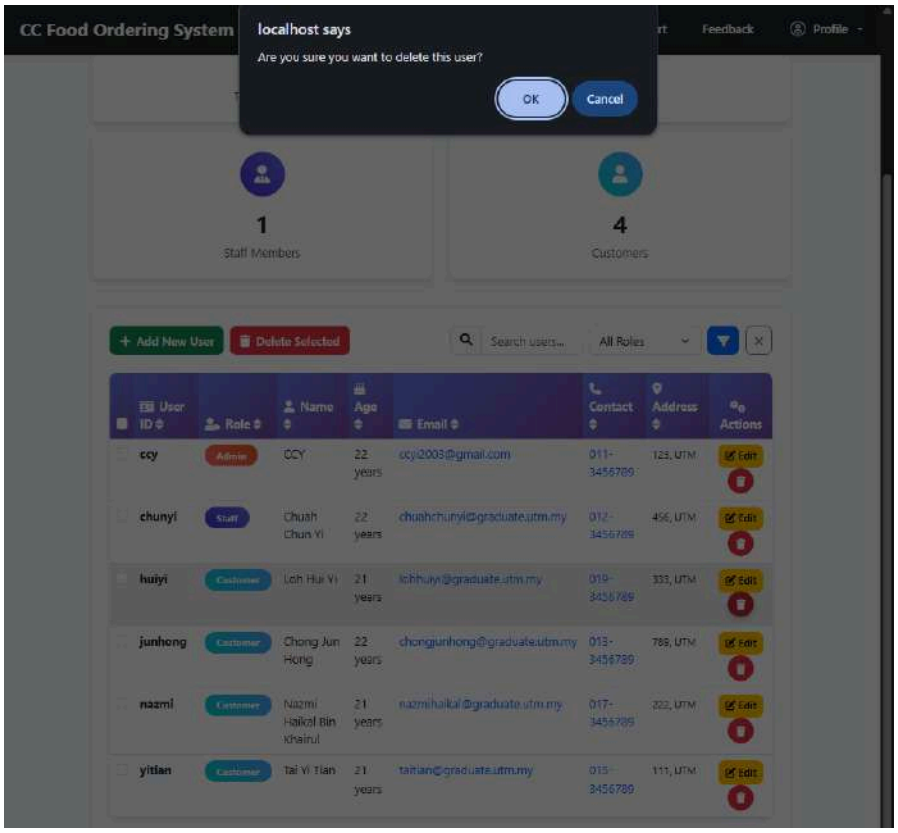
a. The admin can add a new user by clicking on the “Add New User” button on the manage user section.



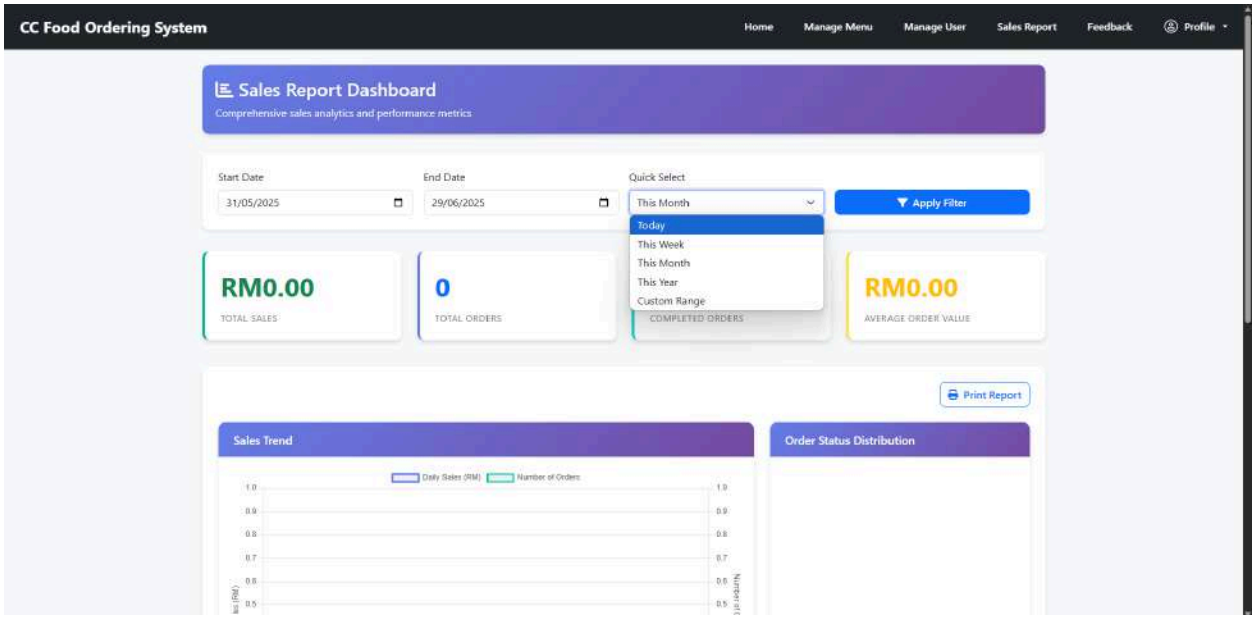
b. The admin can edit a user's information by clicking the "Edit" button at the side of the user's information.



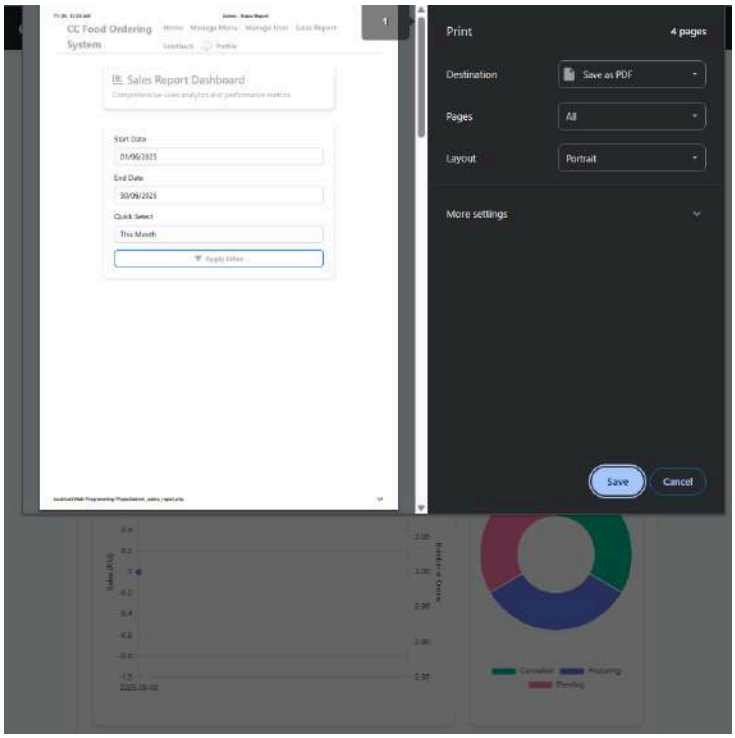
c. The admin can delete a user from the database by clicking on the trash can icon at the side of the user's information.



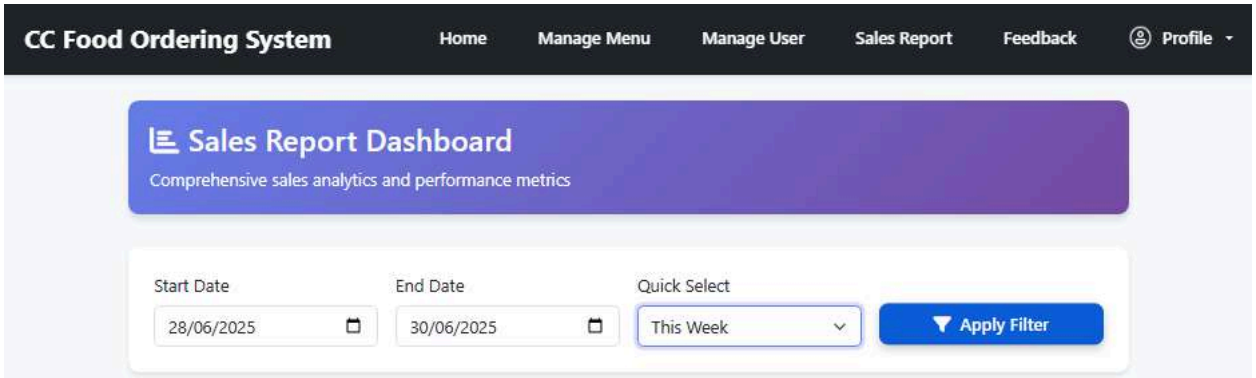
6. Clicking “Sales Report” on the navigation bar or “Sales Report” at the bottom, the system will display reports made based on the information in the database.



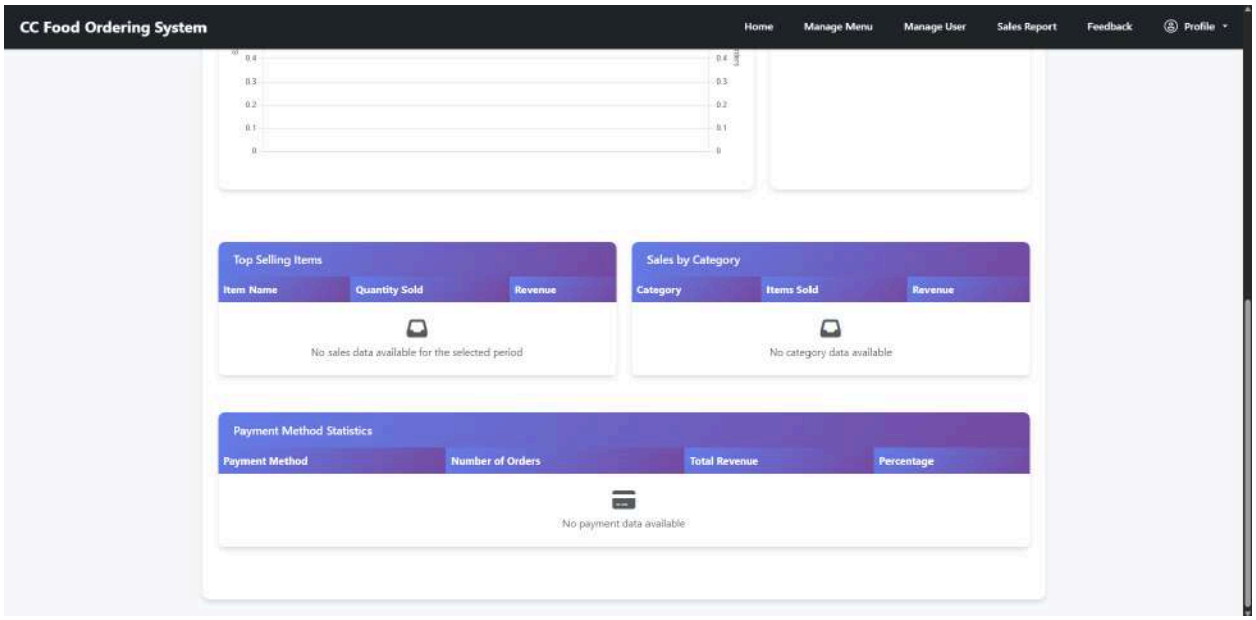
a. The admin can print the report by clicking on the “print report” button on the “sales report” section.



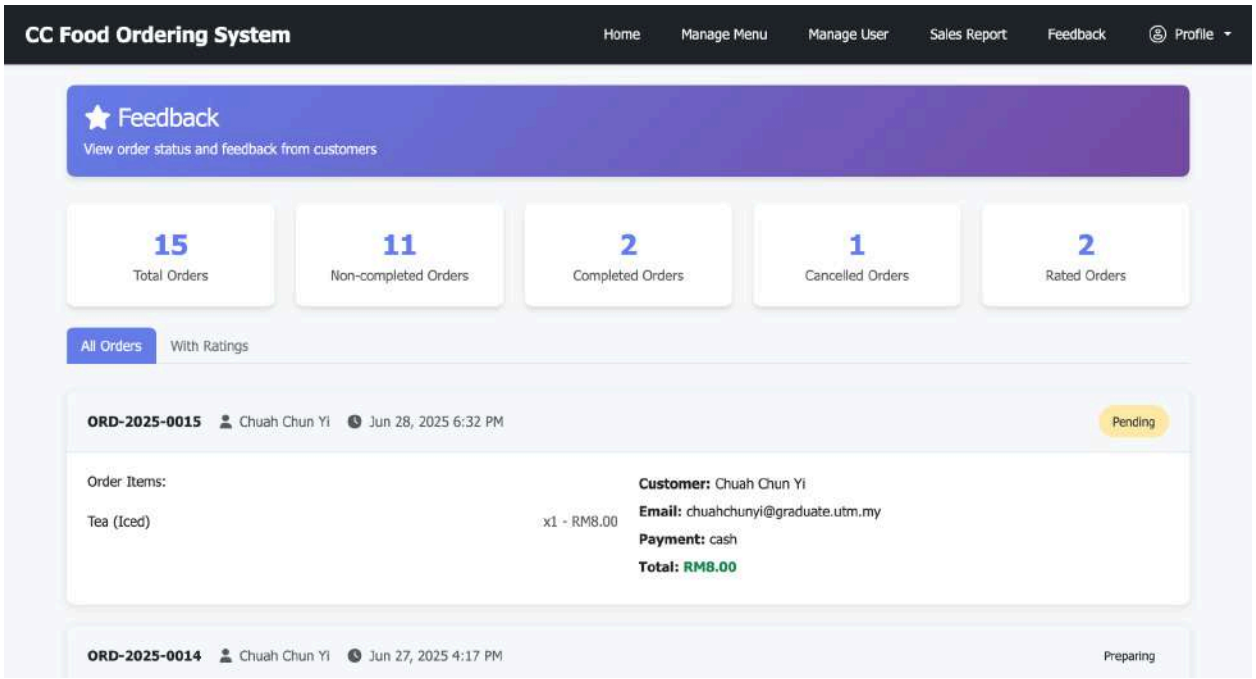
b. The admin can set the start date, end date and the month of the duration to view the report.



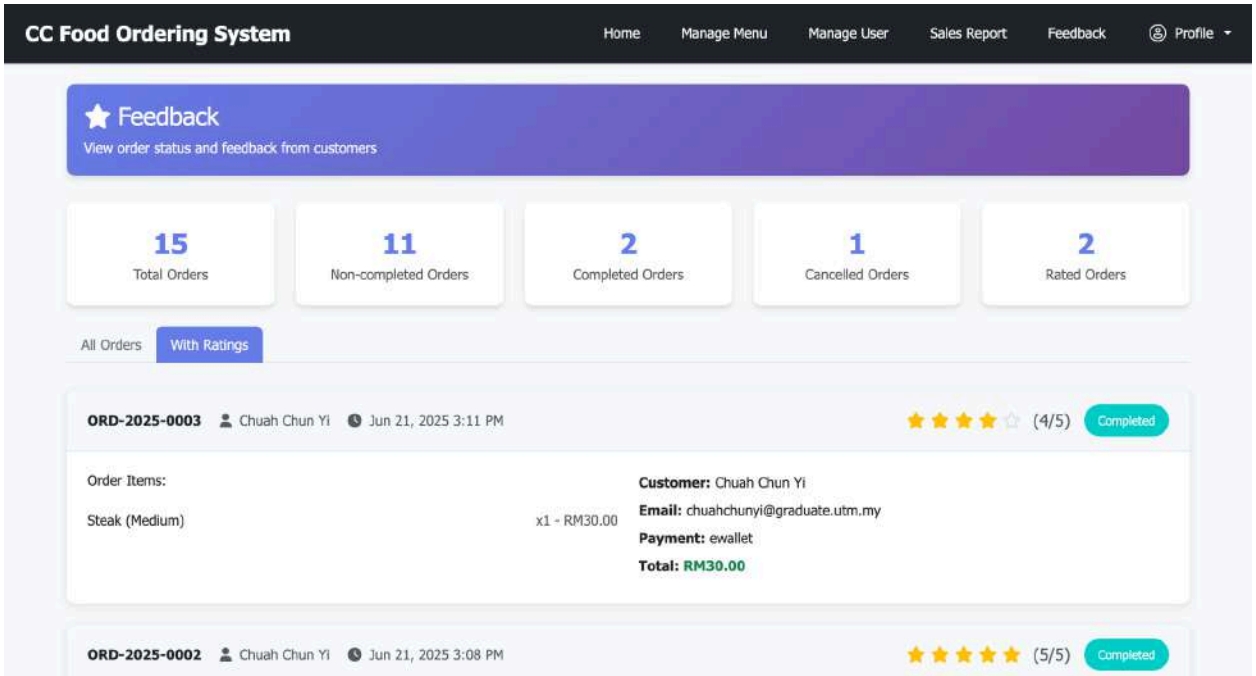
c. The admin can easily see the sales trend, order status distribution, top selling items, sales by category and the payment methods statistics.



7. Clicking “Feedback” on the navigation bar or “Feedback” at the bottom, the system will display orders’ information such as the total order, non-completed orders, completed orders, cancelled orders and order with rating.

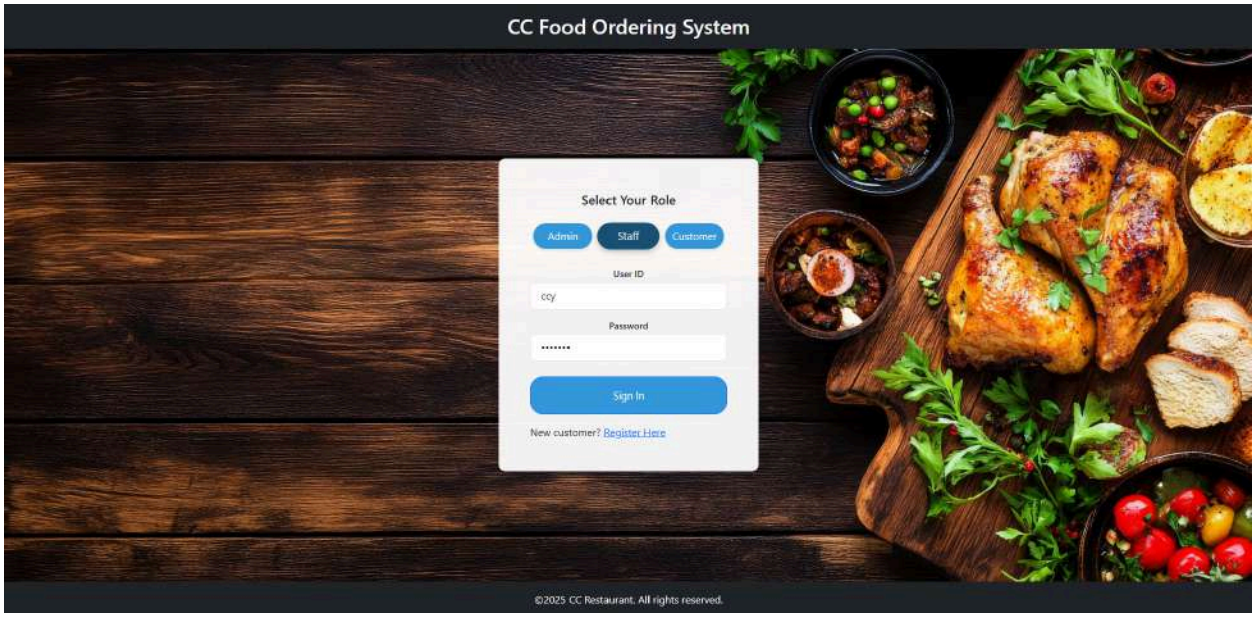


a. The admin can also choose to view the order with feedback only by clicking the button “With Ratings”.

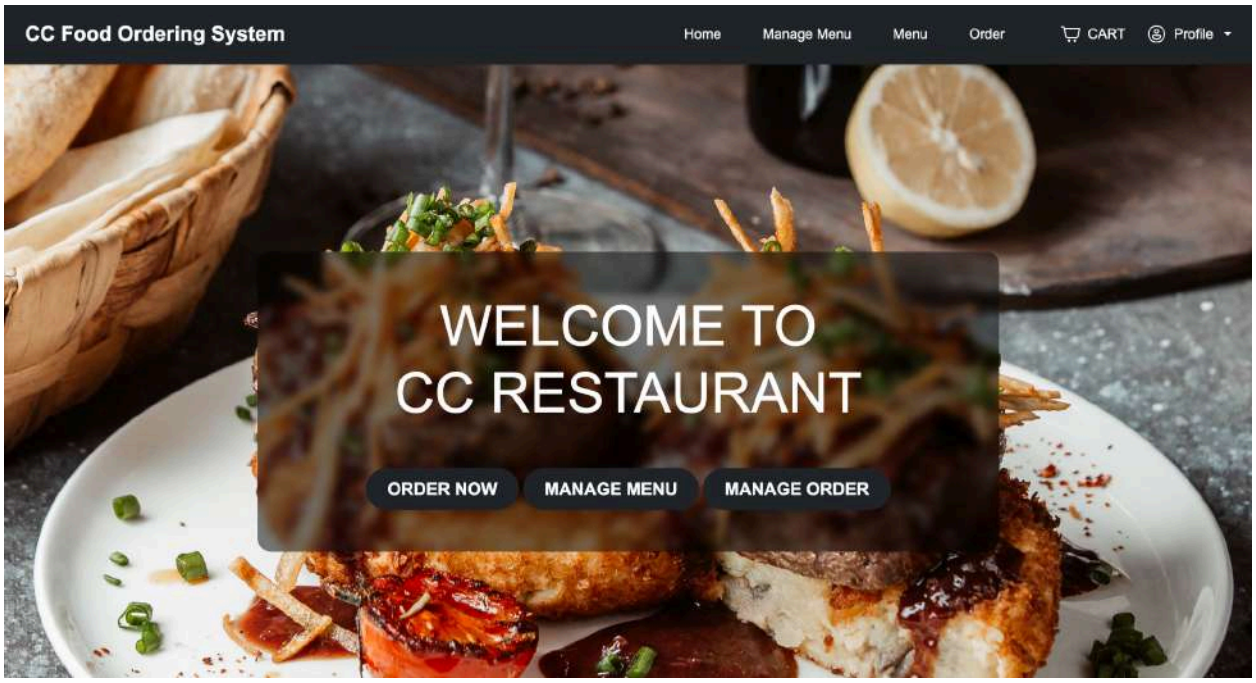


STAFF

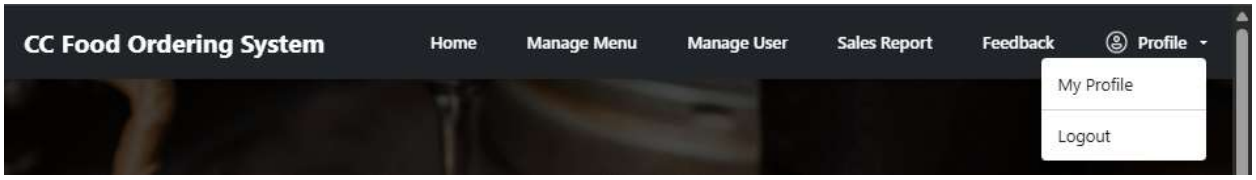
1. Staff logins to the system using the given username and password..



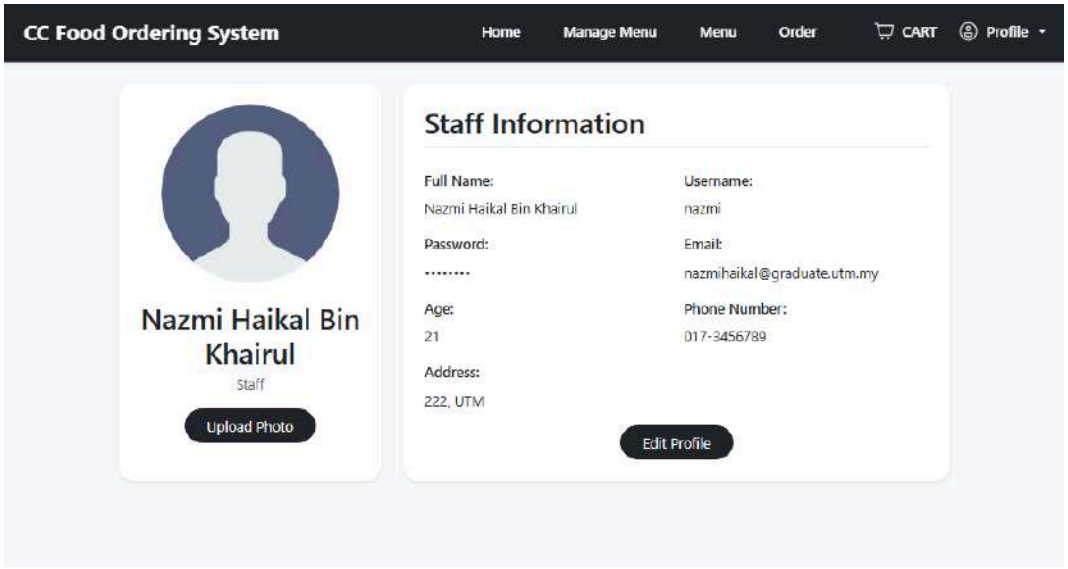
2. If the username and password entered are both matched with the data in the database, the staff will be logged in to the staff's homepage.

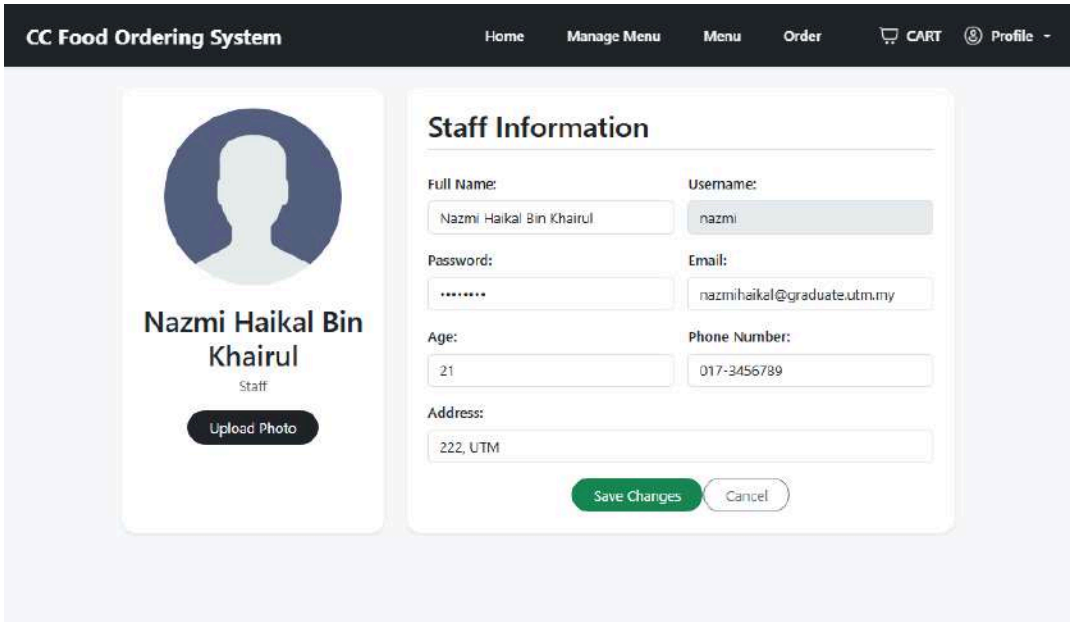


3. Clicking the user icon on the top right will display “Profile” and “Log Out” as a drop down menu.

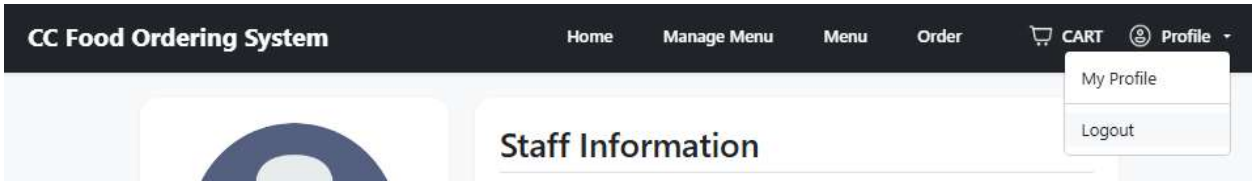


a. Choosing “Profile”, the system displays the current staff profile and the staff can edit their profile.

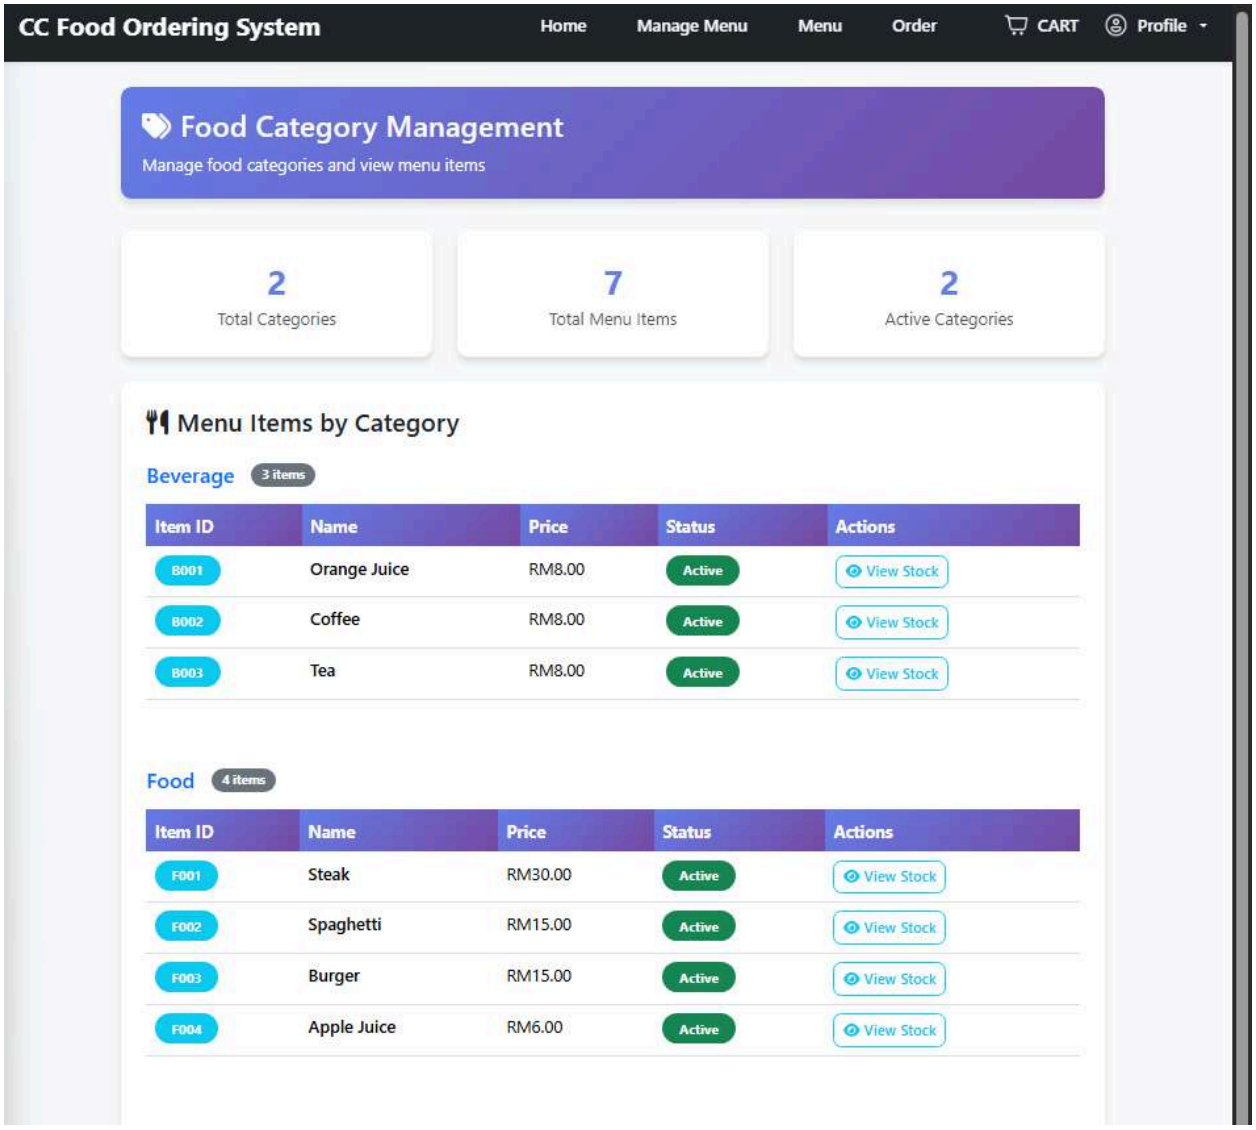




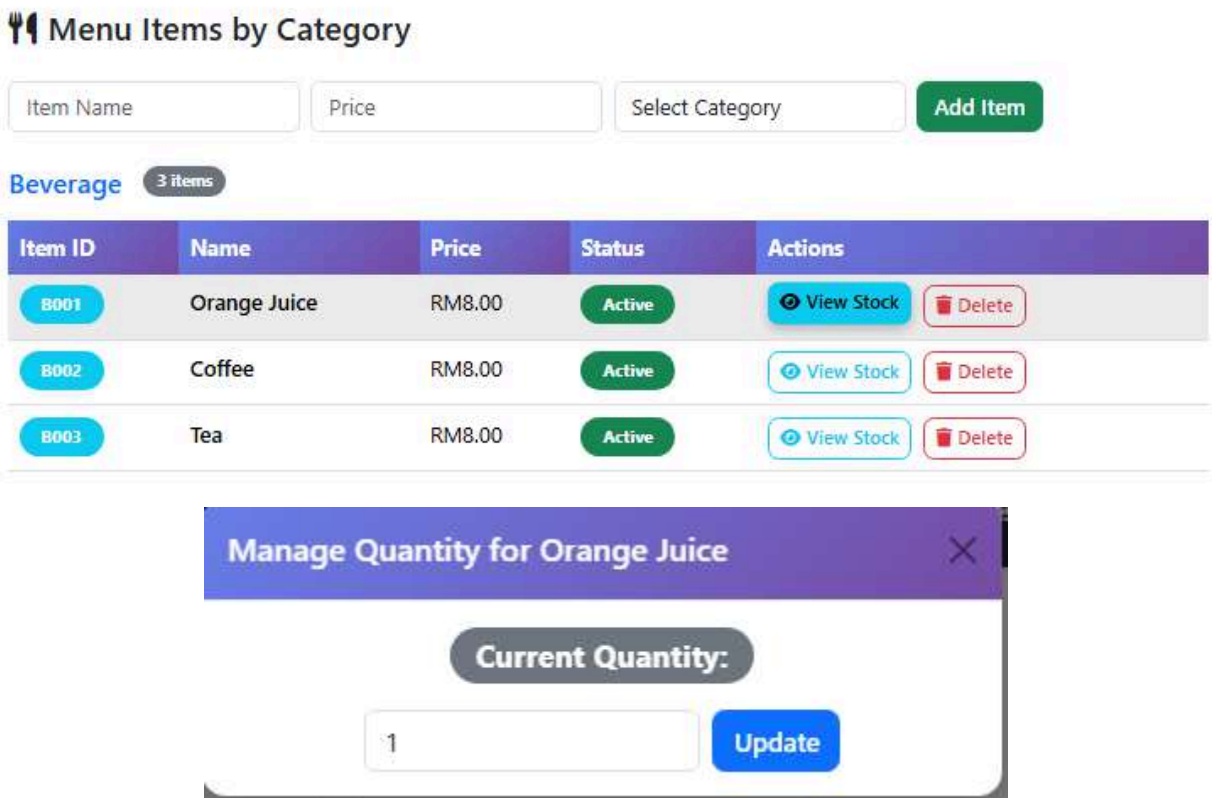
b. If the staff chooses “Log Out”, they will be logged out and brought back to the login page



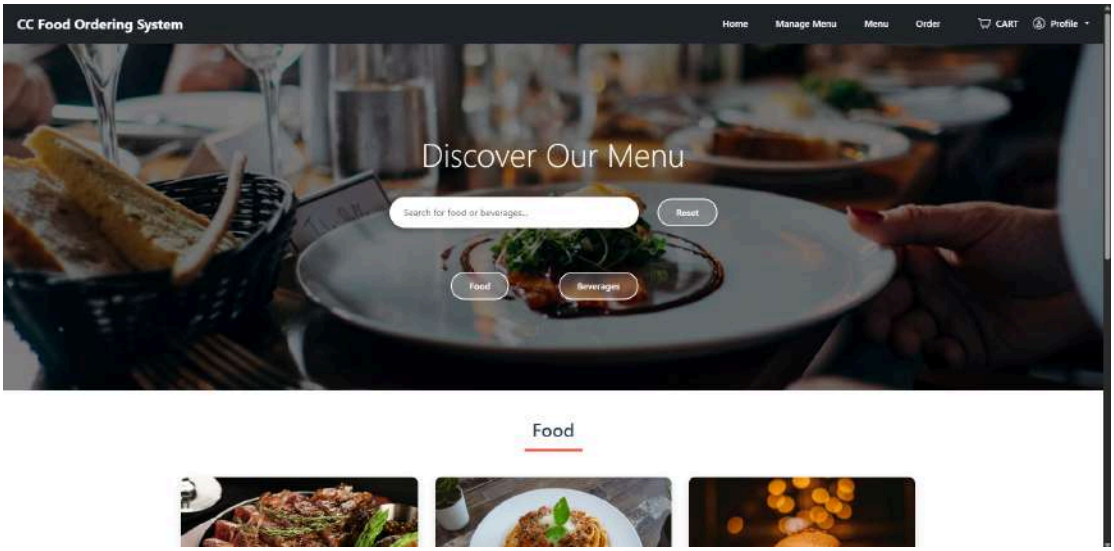
4. Clicking “Manage Menu” on the navigation bar or “Manage Menu” at the bottom, the system will display all food items in the database.



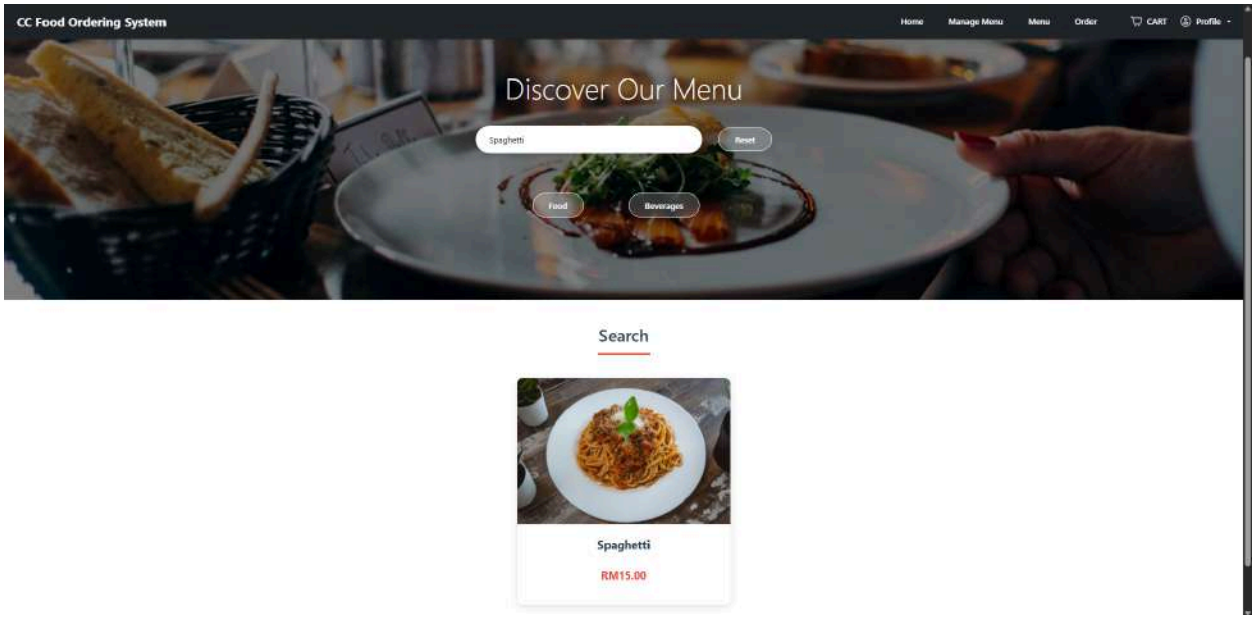
a. The staff can view and update the stock of the item by clicking on the “View Stock” button on the manage menu section.



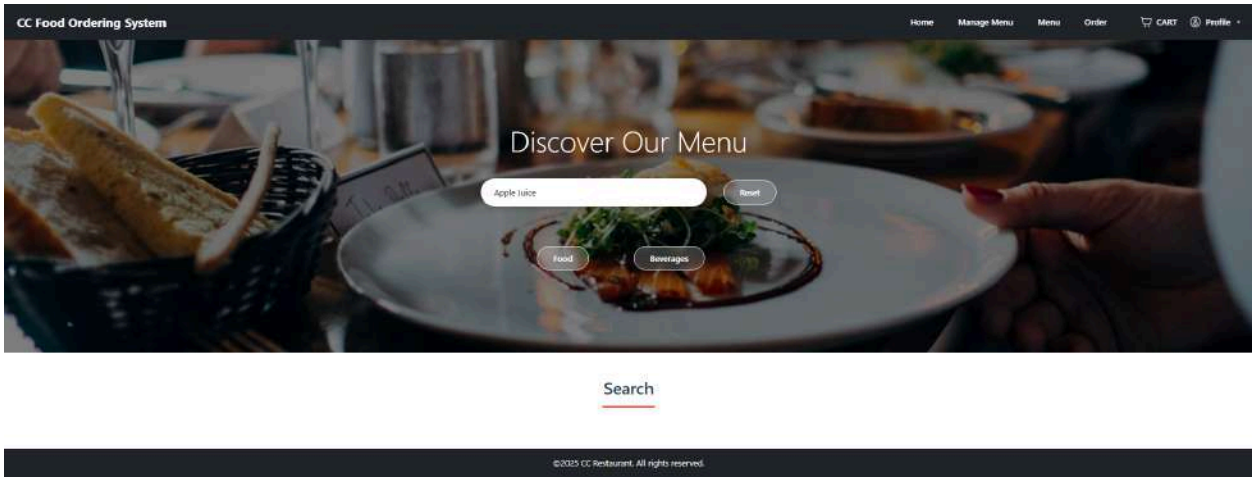
5. Clicking “Menu” on the navigation bar or “Menu” at the bottom, the system will display all menus in the database.



a. The staff can search for a food item using the search bar in the middle of the page.

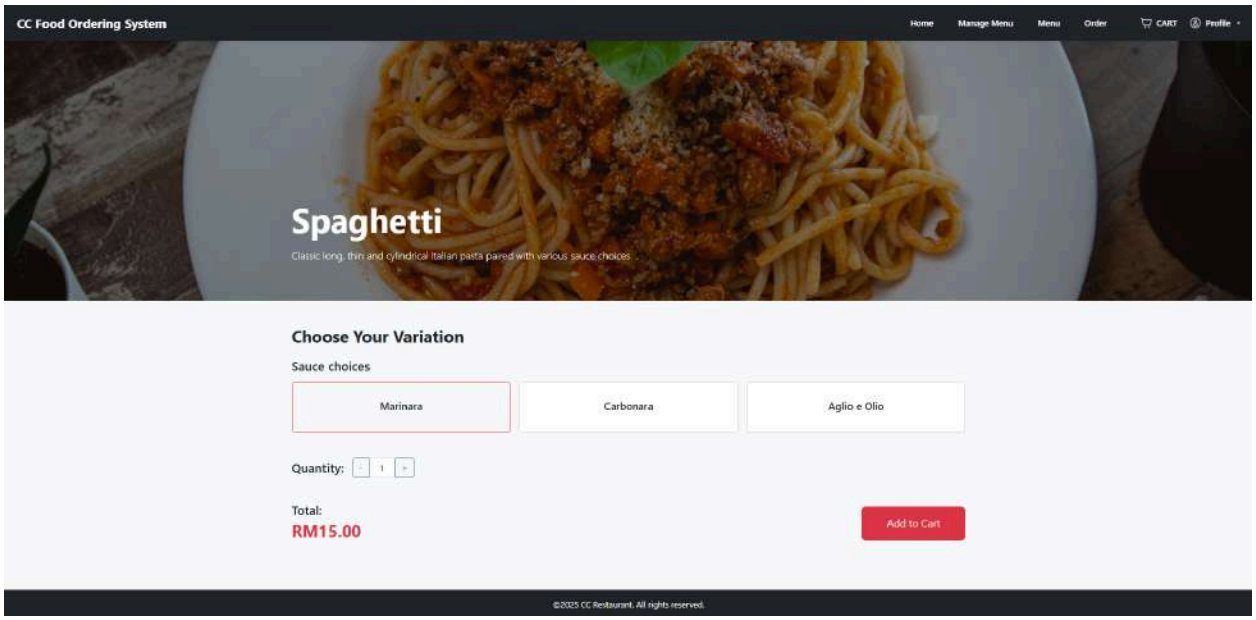


b. In cases where there is no matching result, it will only show empty results.



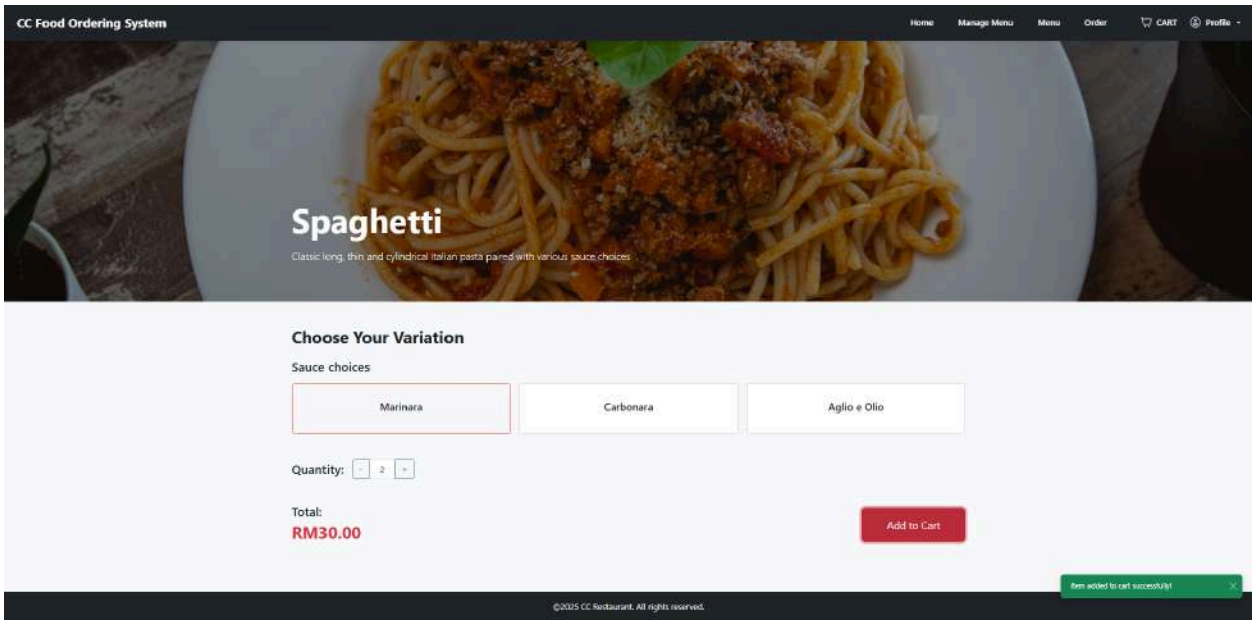
6. The staff can add items into the carts

a. The system will redirect the staff to the items page where the staff can choose the desired preference such as the variations and quantity.

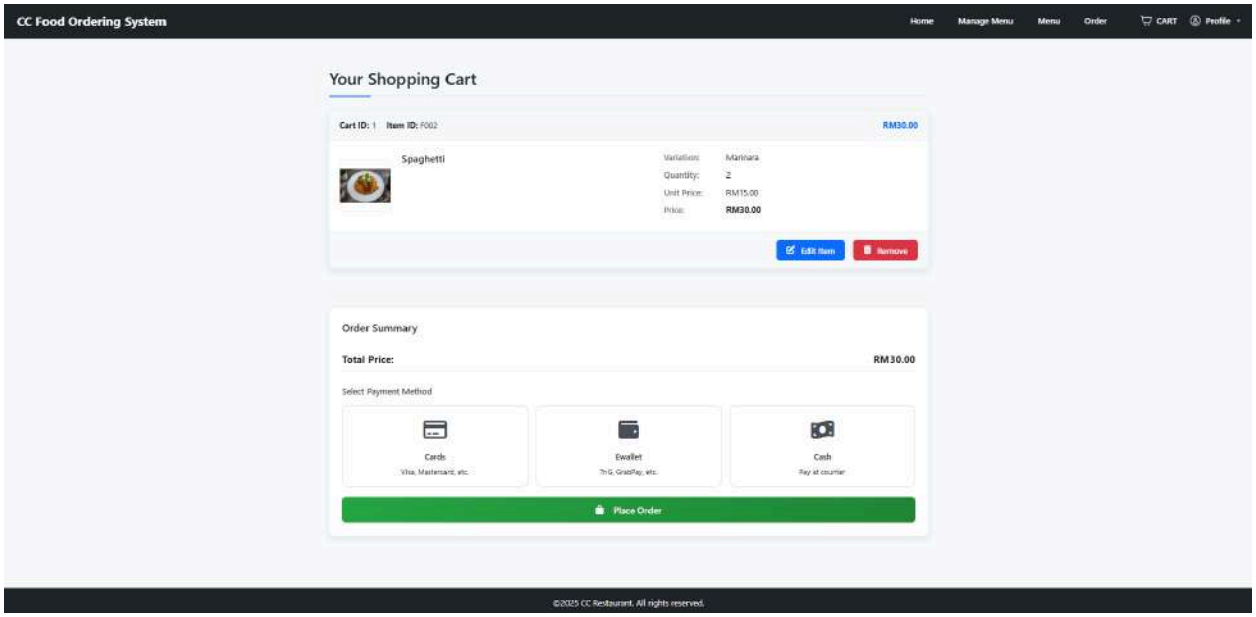


b. The staff can now click on the add to cart button to add the item into their cart.

c. When the button is clicked, a green pop up will appear indicating that the item has been successfully added to the cart.

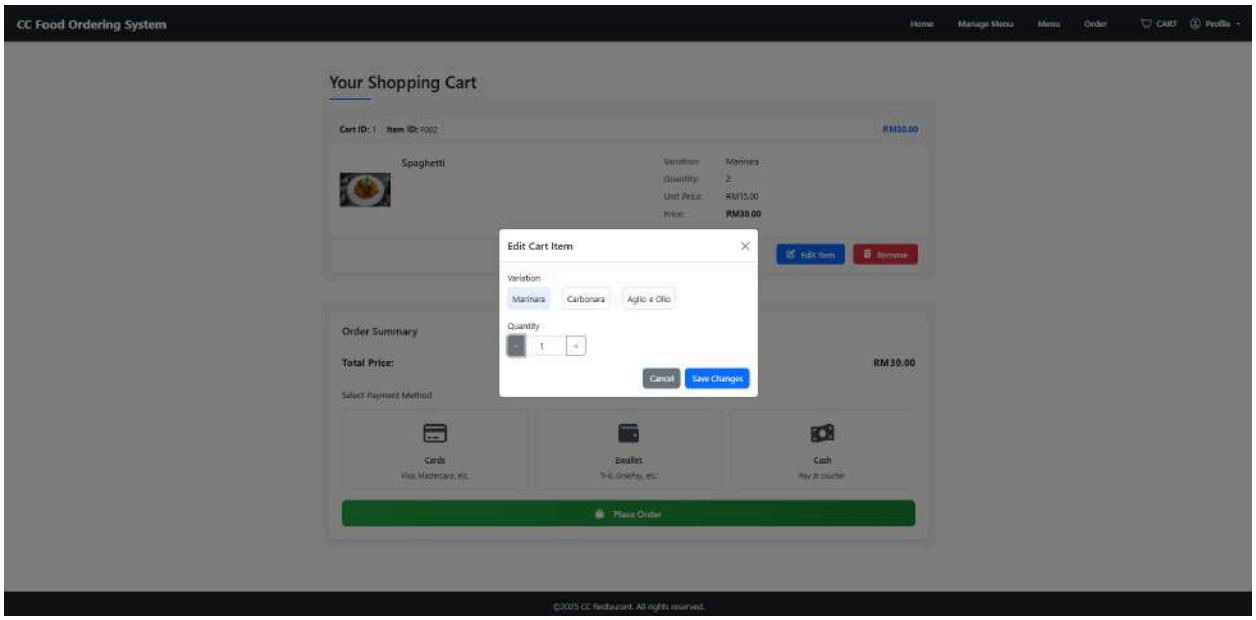


7. Clicking “Carts” on the navigation bar, the system will display all food items in the cart.

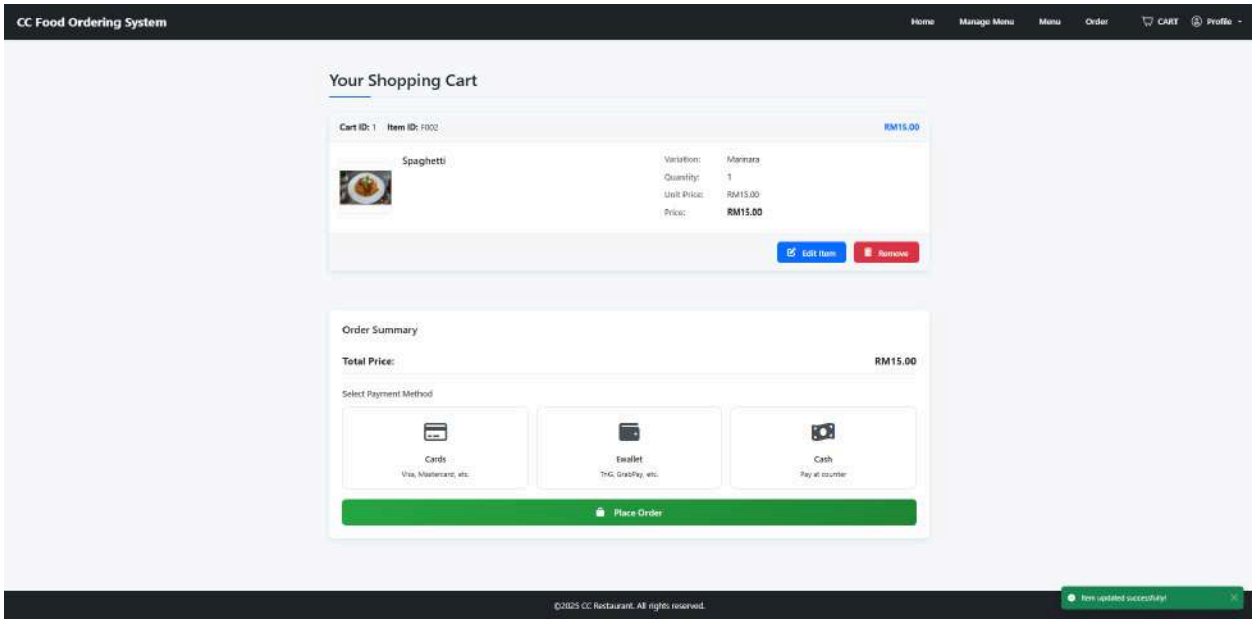


8. The staff can manage their cart

a. The staff can edit the item that has been added to the cart by clicking on the “Edit Item” button.



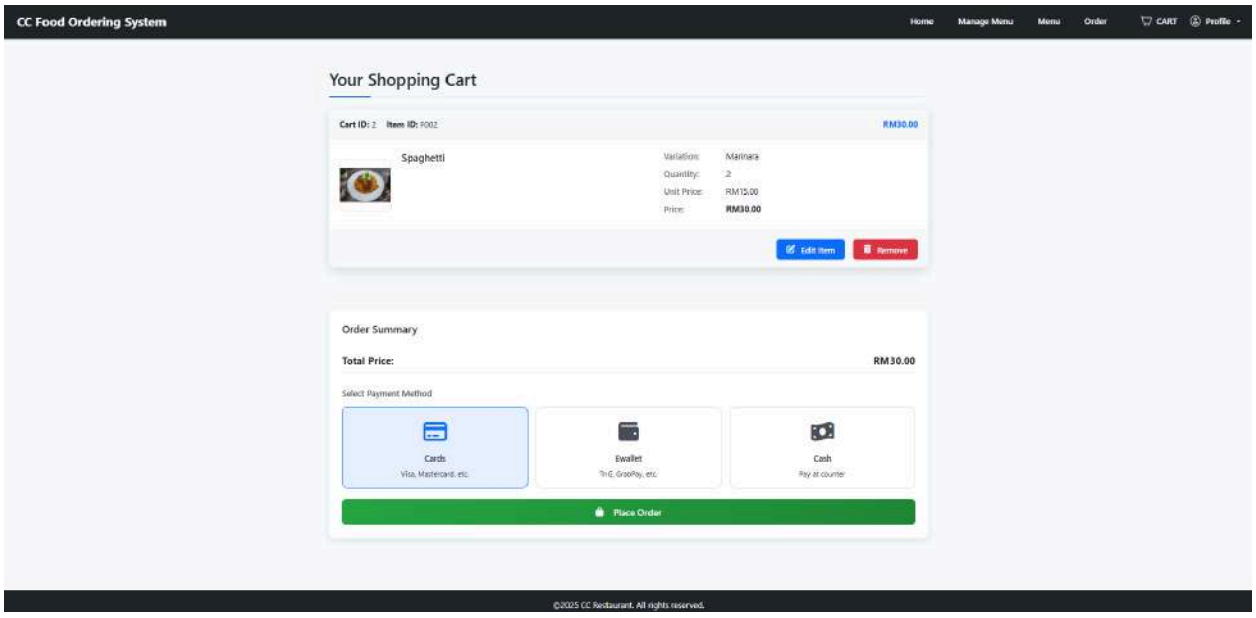
b. The staff can also remove the items from the cart by clicking on the “Remove” button in red.



9. The staff can make payment

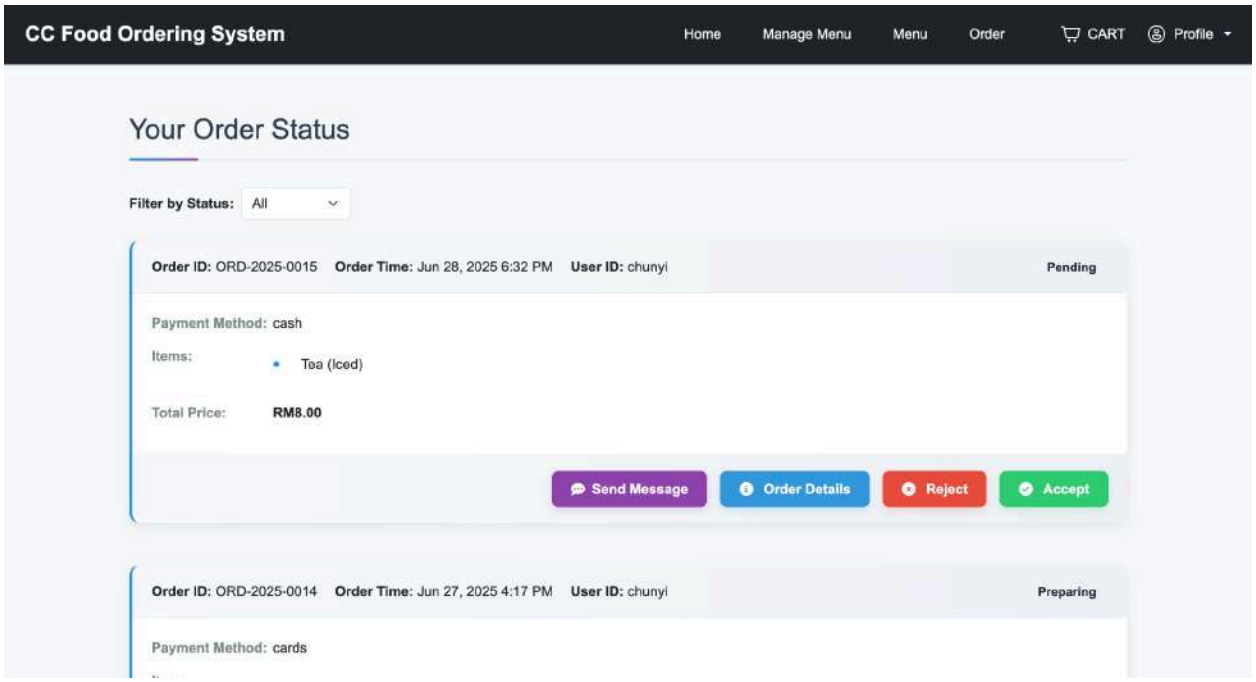
a. The staff can choose the payment method that they want to use.

b. The staff can then click on the “Place Order” button which will redirect them to the order status page.

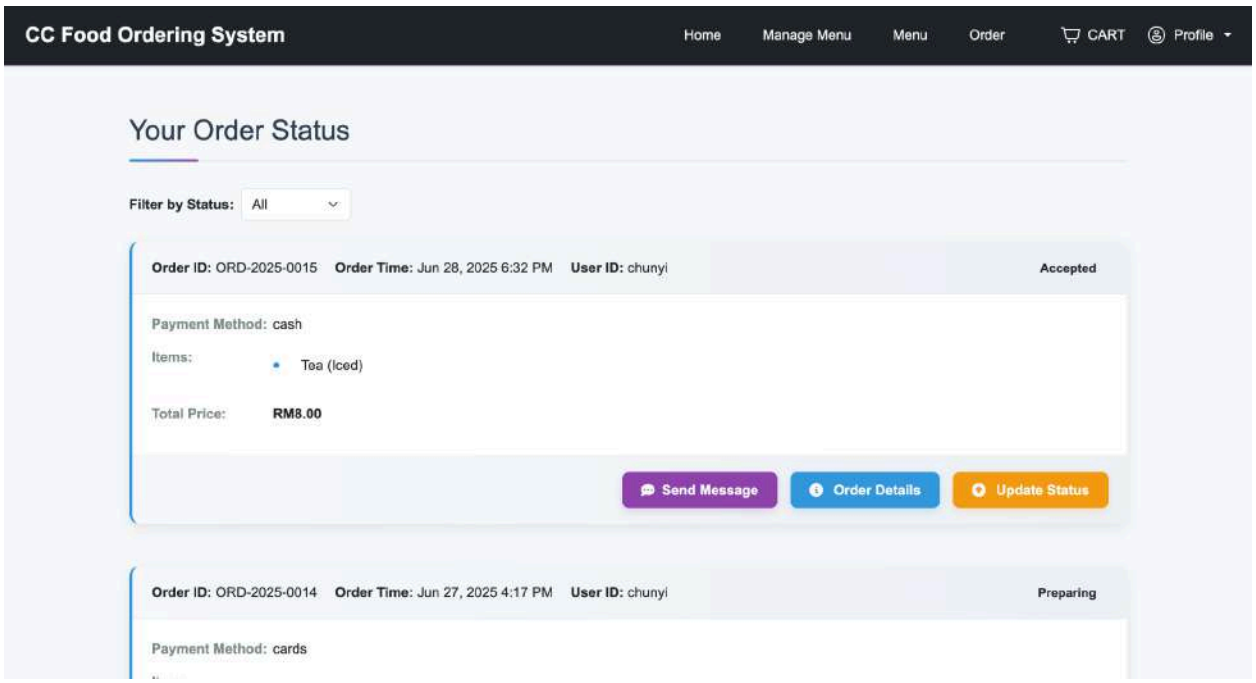


10. The staff can manage order

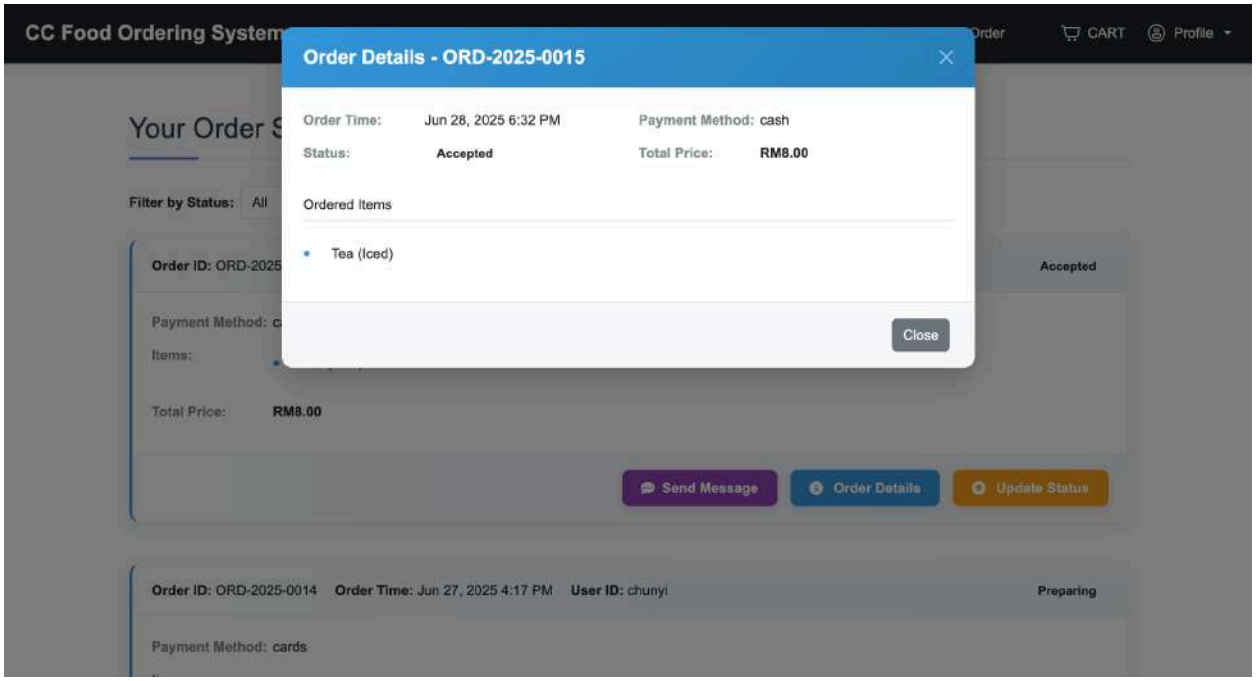
a. The staff can now accept the order by clicking on the “Accept” button or they can cancel the order by clicking on the “Reject” button.



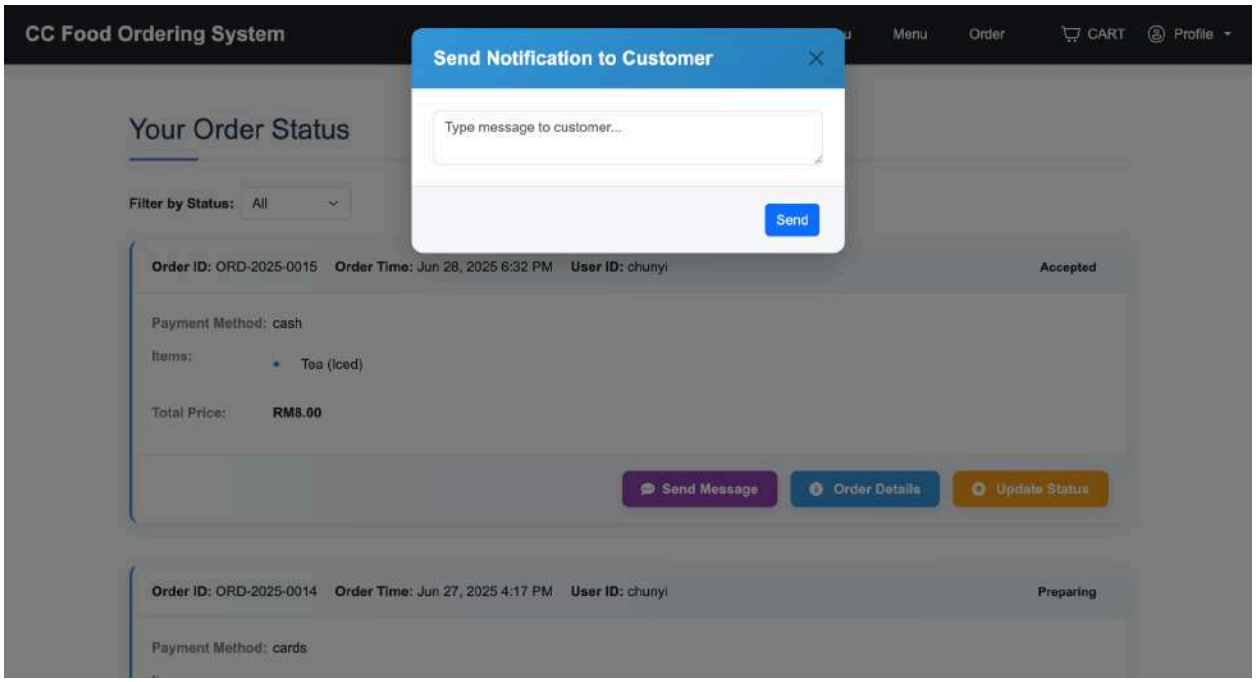
b. If the staff accepts the order, they can update the status of the order by clicking on the “Update Status” button.



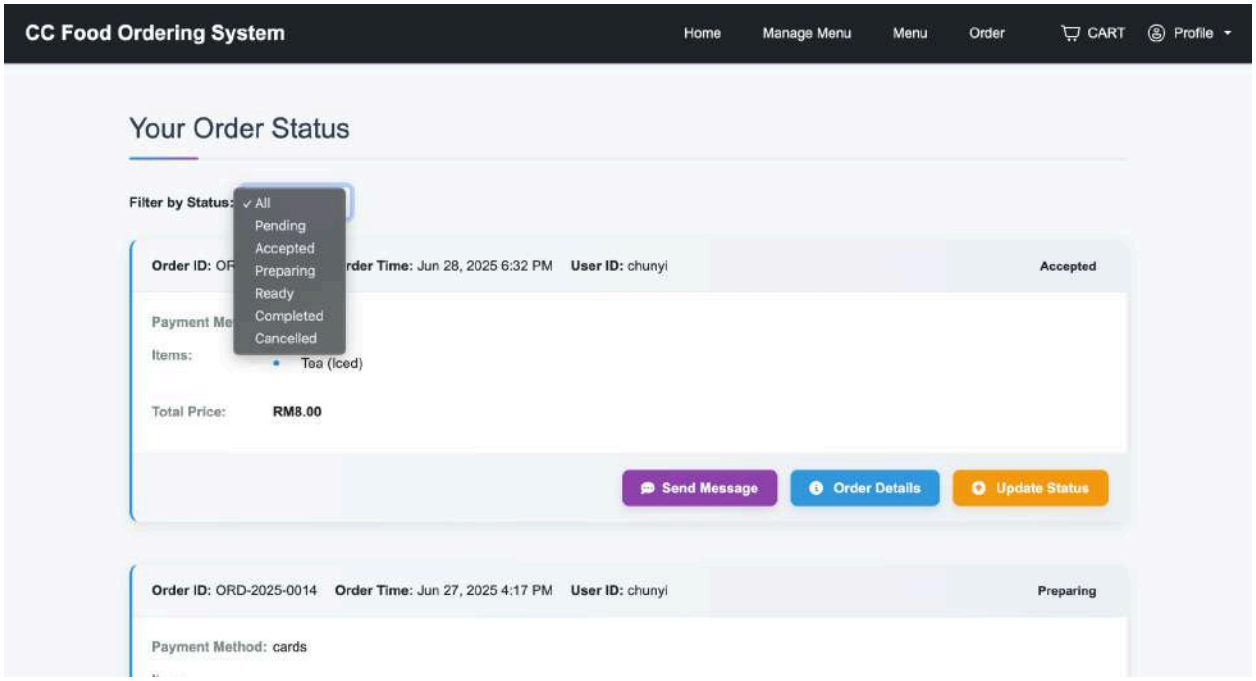
c. The staff can also see the order details by clicking on the “Order Details” button.

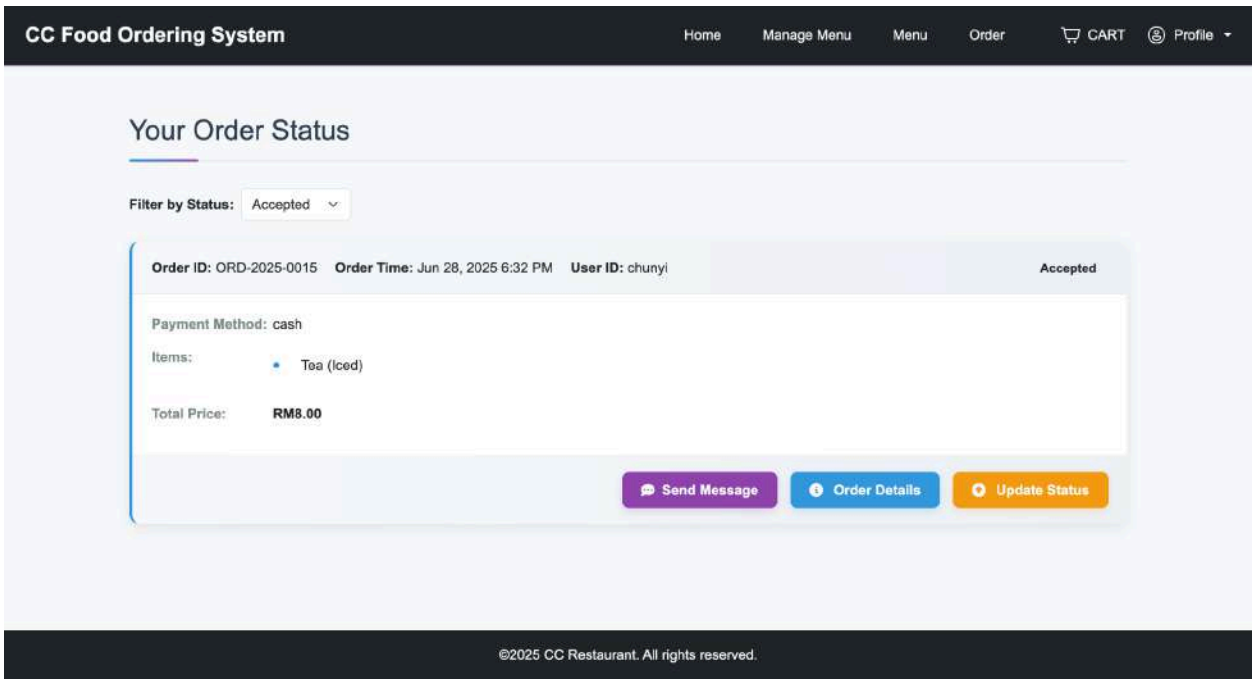


d. The staff can also send messages to the customer by clicking on the “Send Message” button. The message will be sent when the staff write down the message in the message box and then click on the “Send” button.



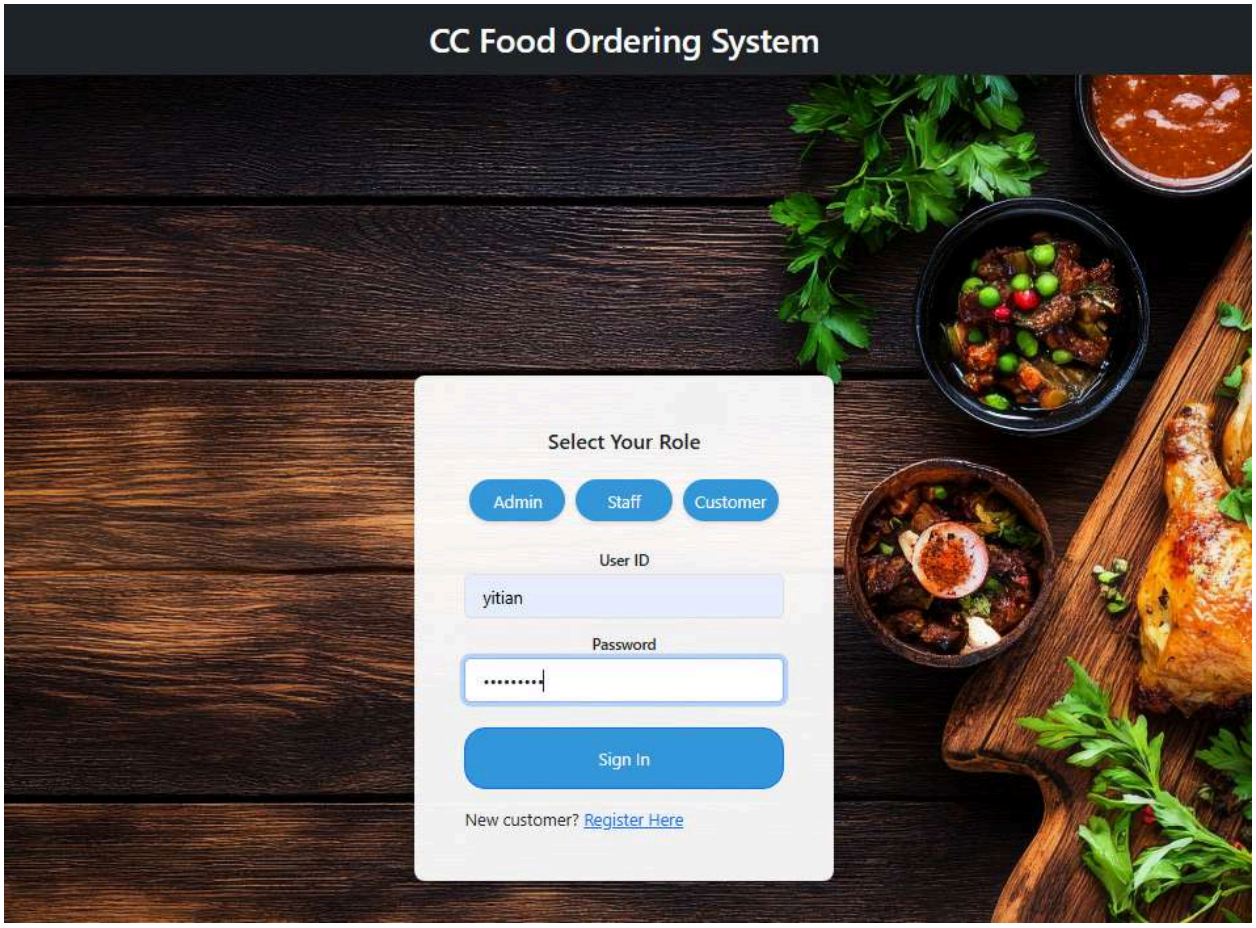
e. The staff choose to only view orders with the one specific status with the filter.



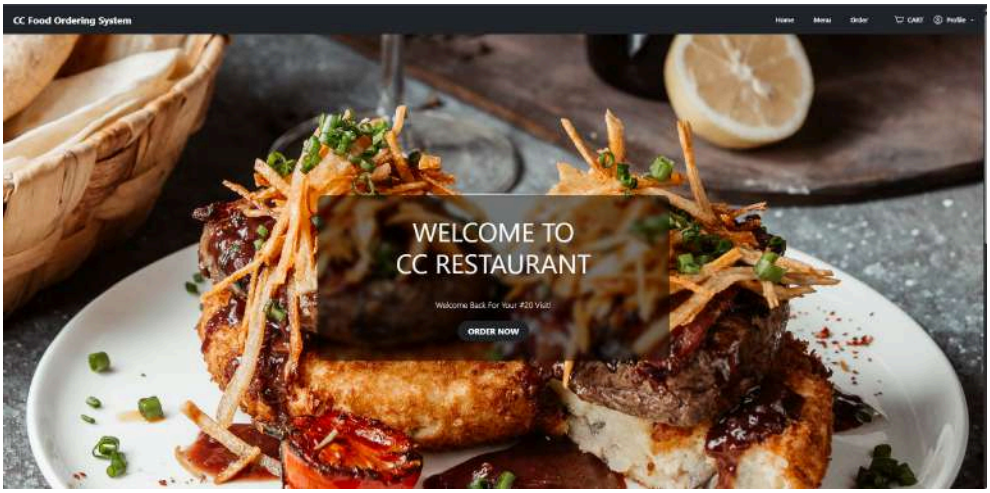


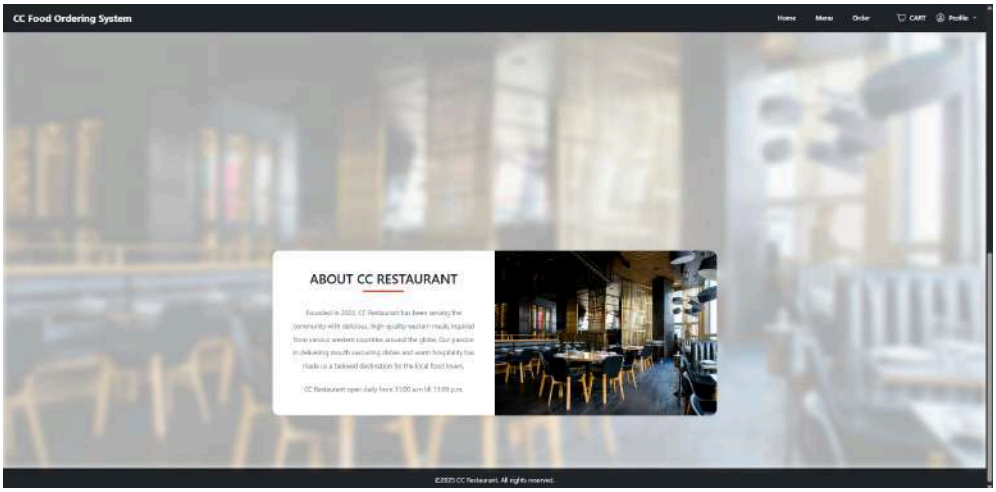
CUSTOMER

1. Customer logins to the system using the given username and password..

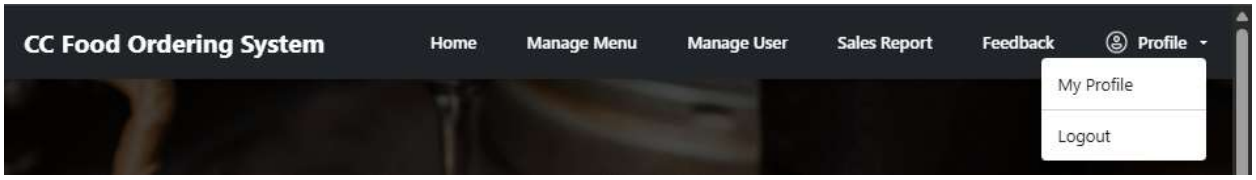


2. If the username and password entered are both matched with the data in the database, the customer will be logged in to the customer's homepage.

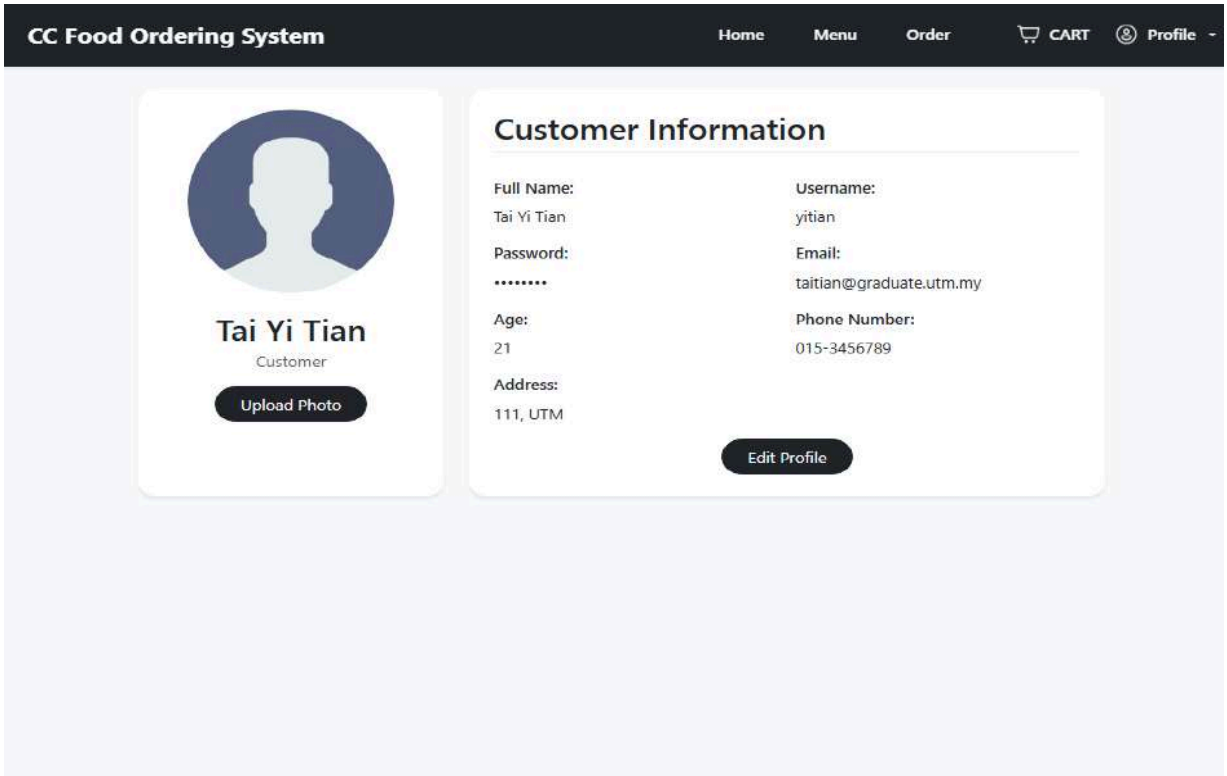


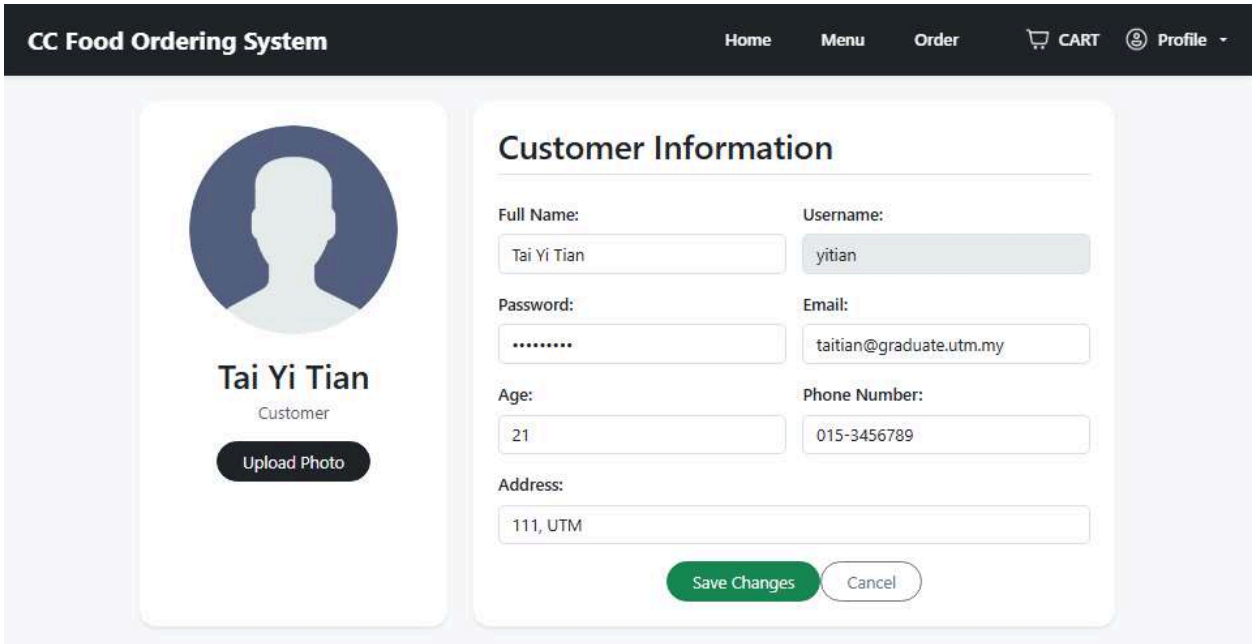


3. Clicking the user icon on the top right will display “Profile” and “Log Out” as a drop down menu.

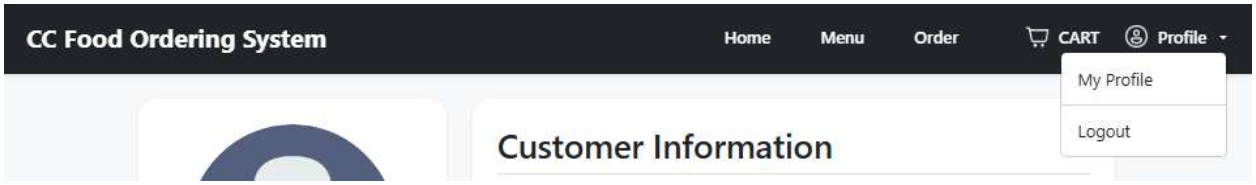


a. Choosing “Profile”, the system displays the current staff profile and the customer can edit their profile.

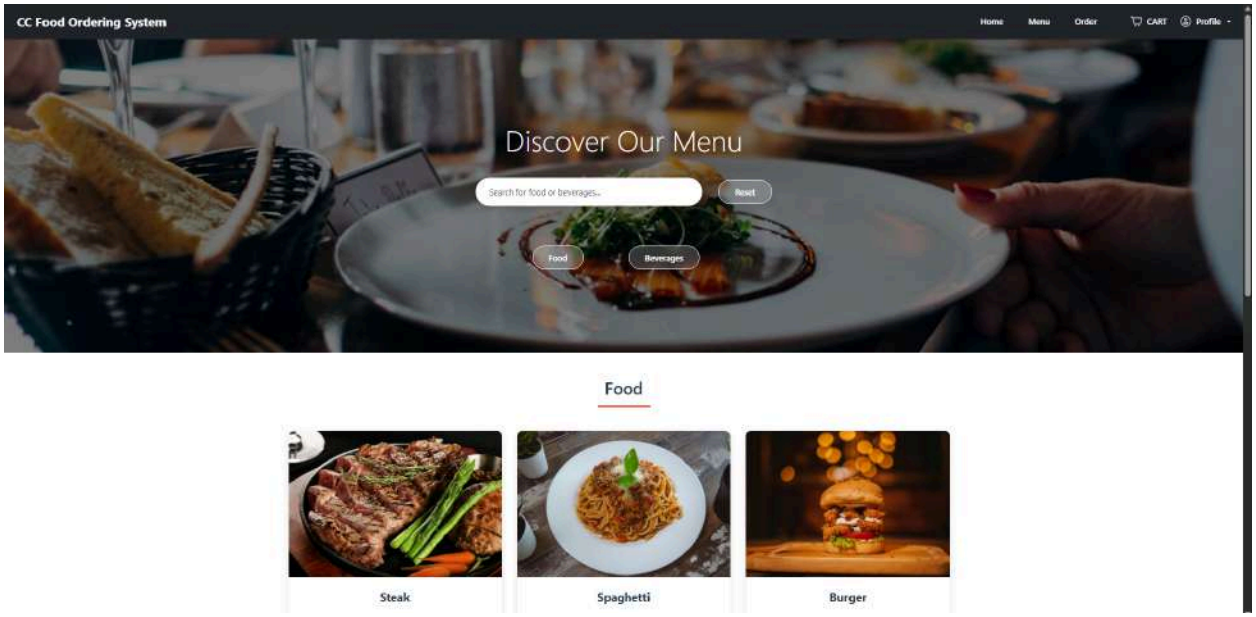




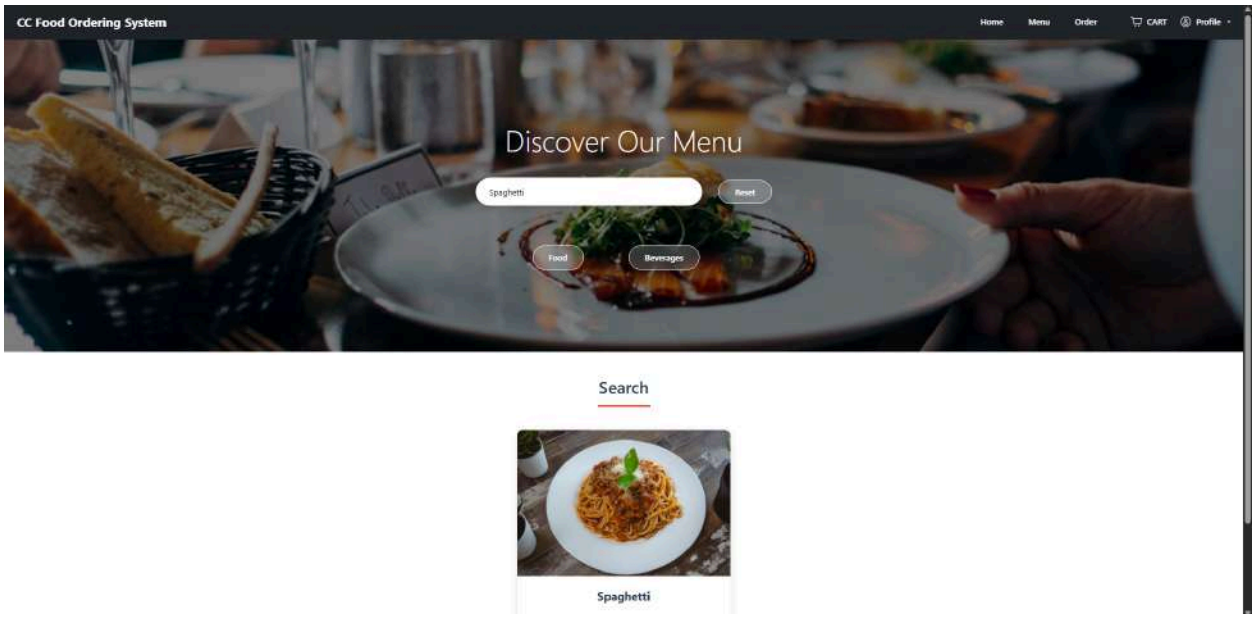
b. If the customer chooses “Log Out”, they will be logged out and brought back to the login page.



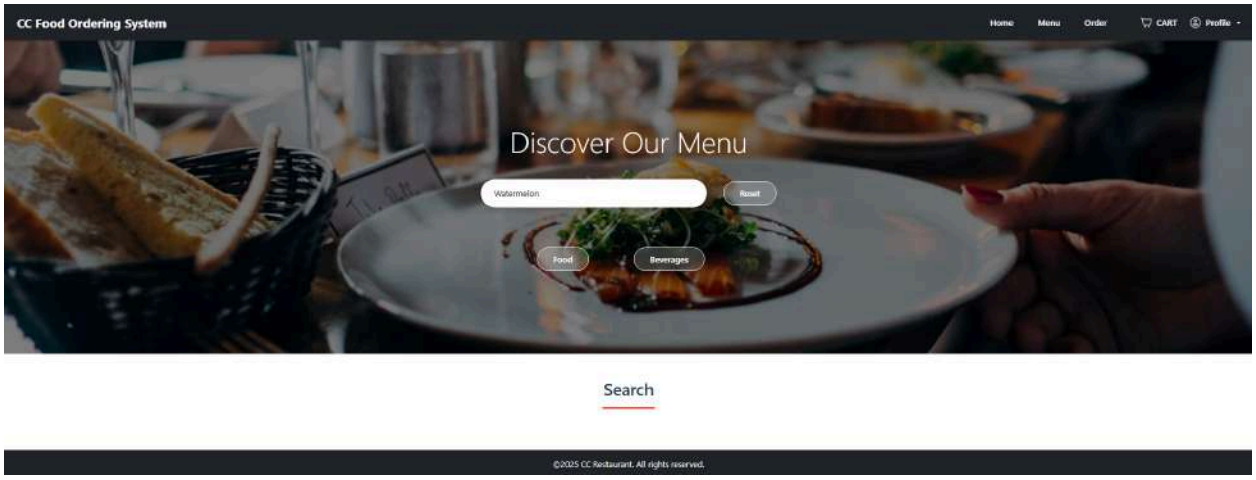
5. Clicking “Menu” on the navigation bar or “Menu” at the bottom, the system will display all menus in the database.



a. The customer can search for a food item using the search bar in the middle of the page. The system will show the matching results

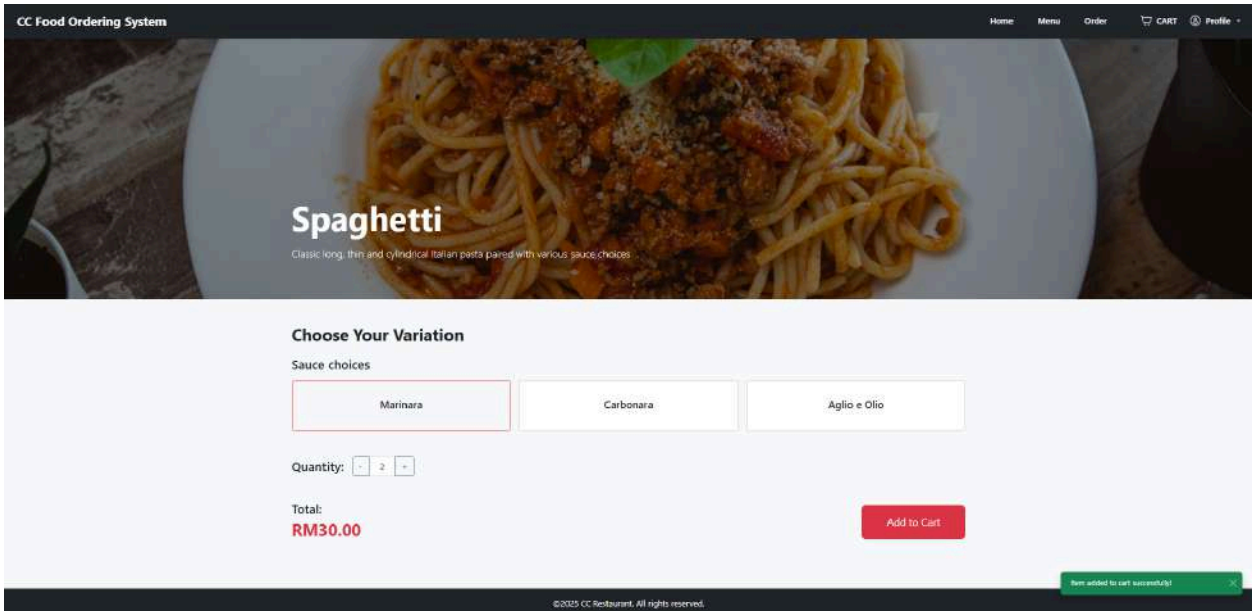


b. In cases where there is no matching result, it will only show empty results.



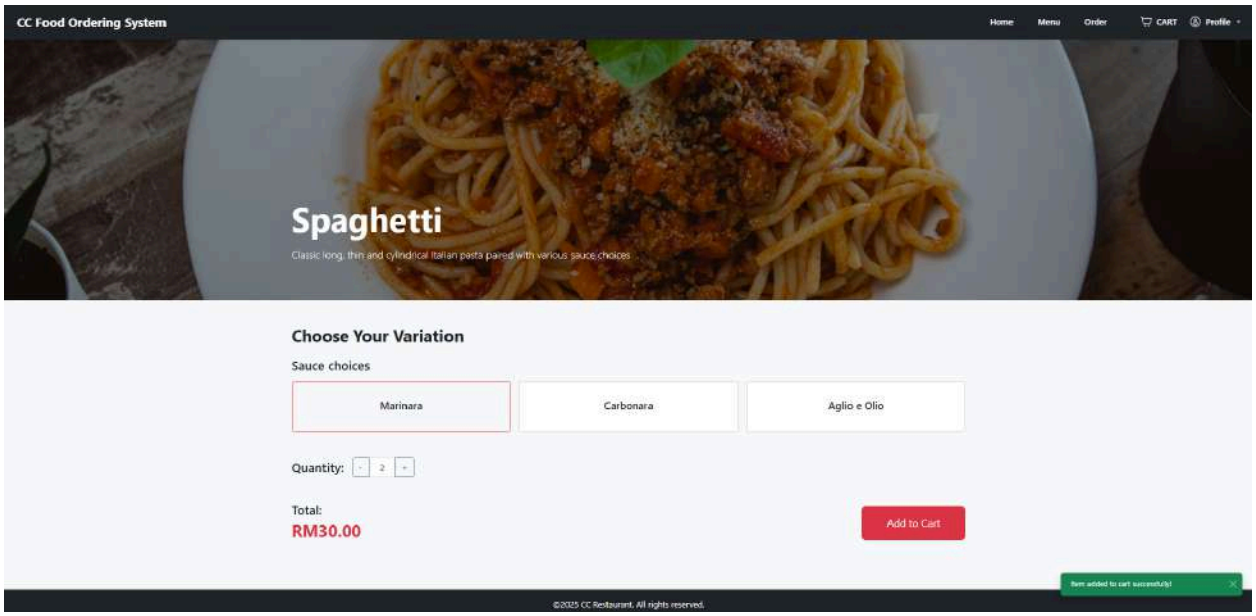
6. The customer can add items into the carts.

a. The system will redirect the customer to the items page where the customer can choose the desired preference such as the variations and quantity.

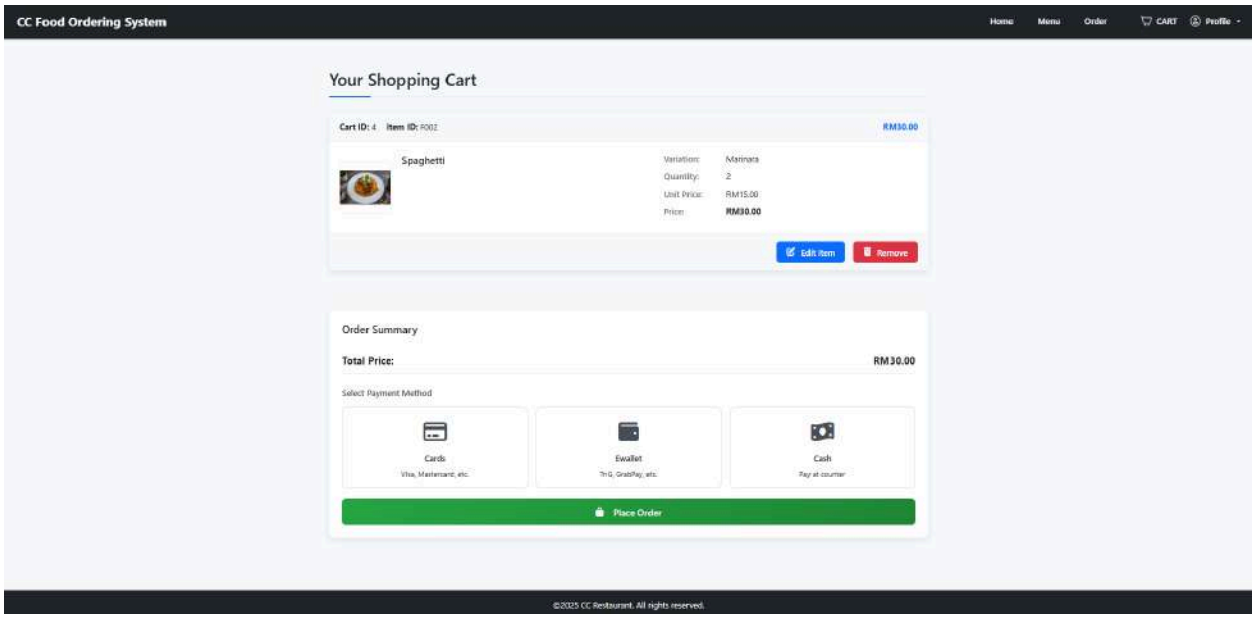


b. The customer can now click on the add to cart button to add the item into their cart.

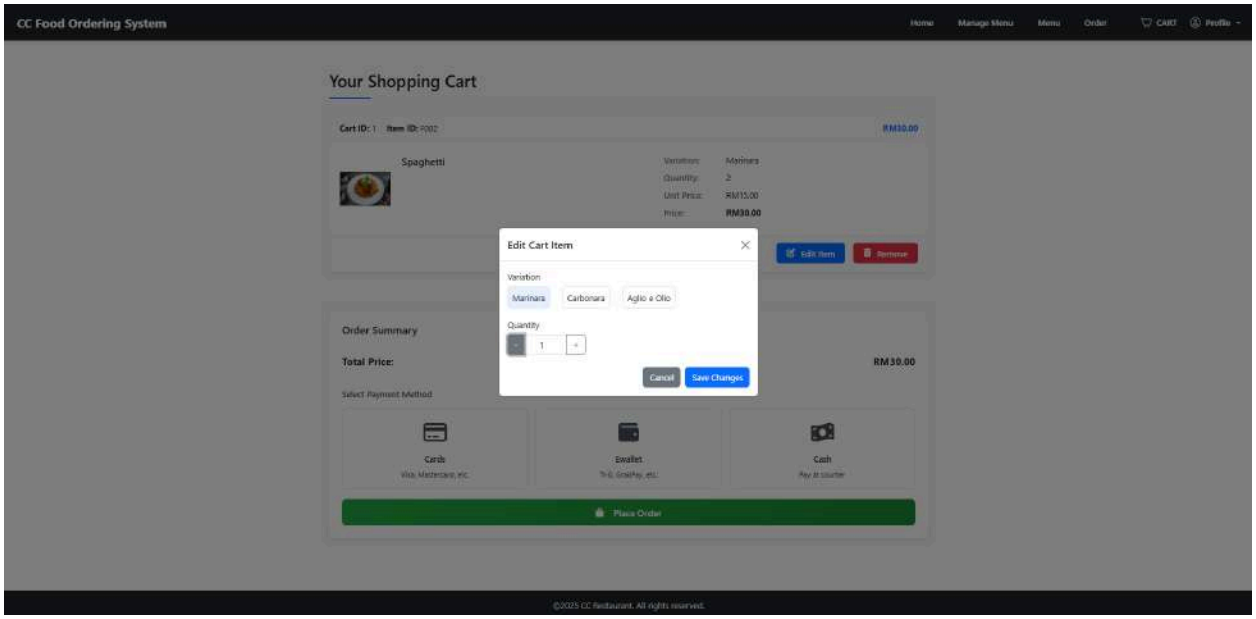
c. When the button is clicked, a green pop up will appear indicating that the item has been successfully added to the cart.



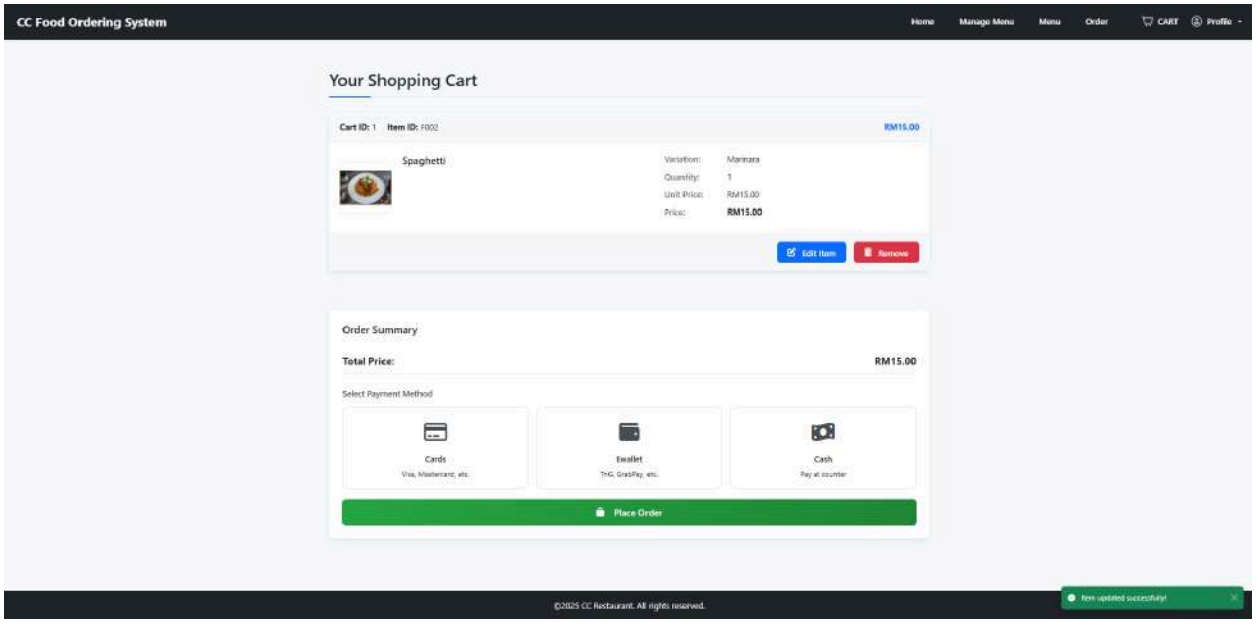
7. Clicking “Carts” on the navigation bar, the system will display all food items in the cart.



8. The customer can manage their cart.

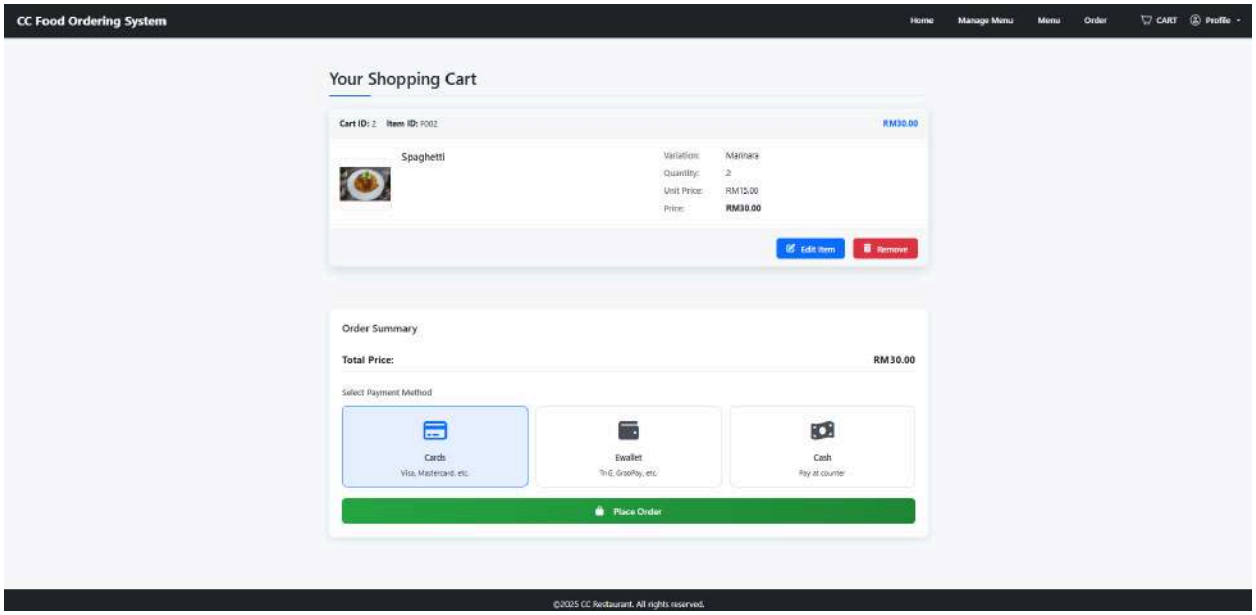


a. The customer can edit the item that has been added to the cart by clicking on the "Edit Item" button.



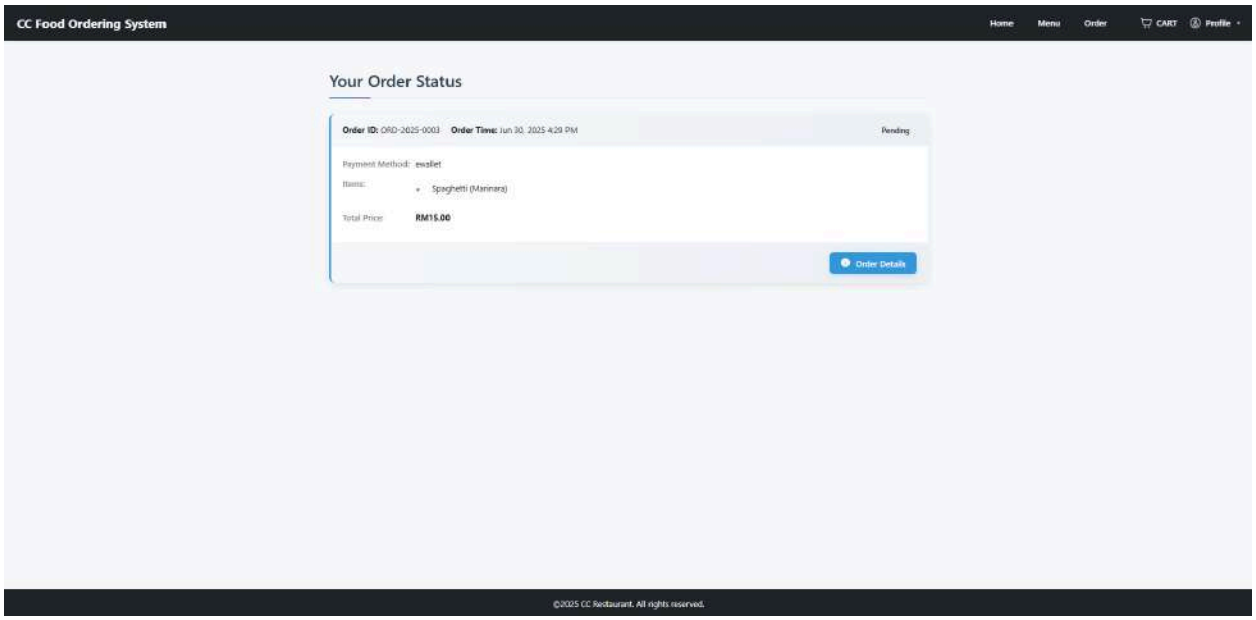
b. The customer can also remove the items from the cart by clicking on the "Remove" button in red.

9. The customer can make a payment.

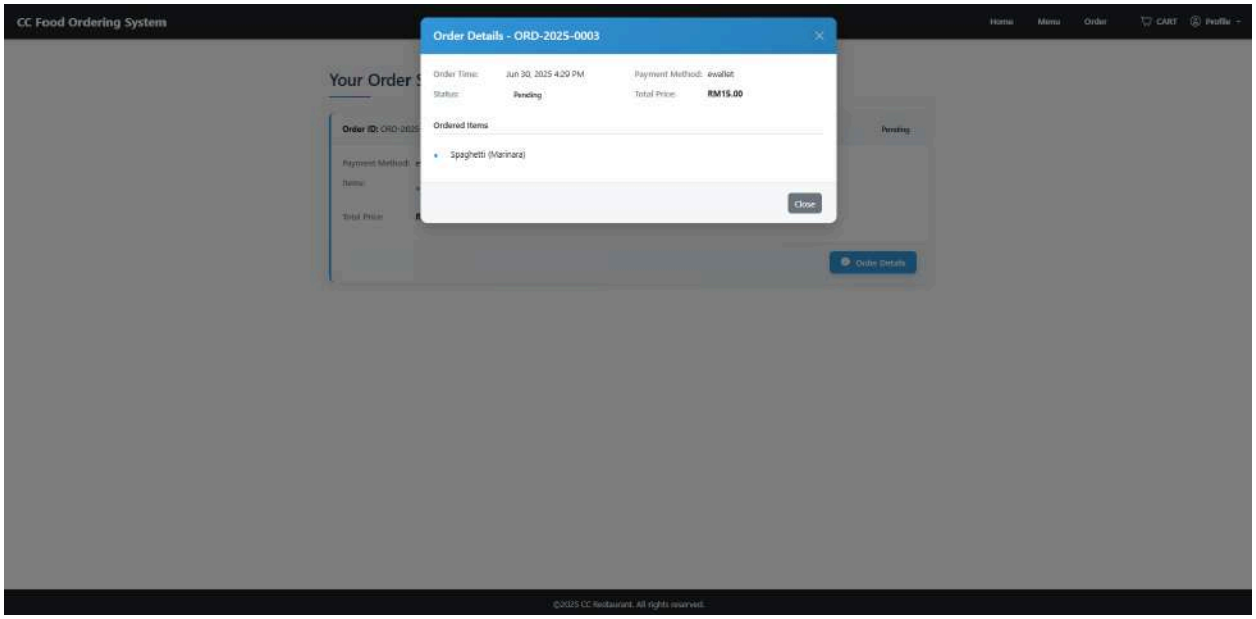


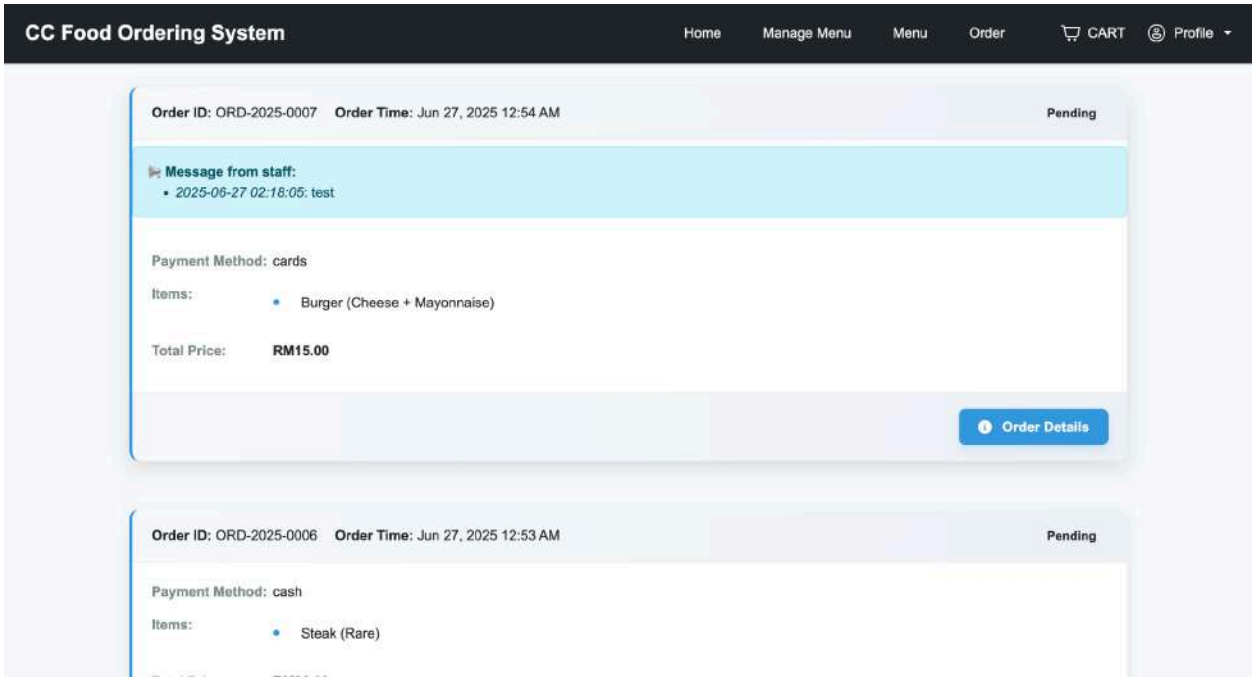
a. The customer can choose the payment method that they want to use.

b. The customer can then click on the "Place Order" button which will redirect them to the order status page.



c. The customer can see the order details by clicking on the “Order Details” button.





d. If a staff member sends a message to the customer, the message will be shown.